168 Film Festival Winners 2023

20th Annual Film Festival at Trilith Georgia

Ten Short Films Invited for a Look by Angel Studios

Fayetteville, GA-This weekend, from November 2nd to November 4th, the 20th annual 168 Film Festival unfolded at Trilith Town Stage in Fayetteville, Georgia, generously sponsored by Advent Media, Inc., Hollyland, and CT Cantina & Taqueria Trilith. Filmmakers honed and crafted their skills in the 168 speedfilm competition, producing films based on scripture verses inspired by the 2023 theme, "Time."

The prestigious title of Best Film was claimed by "Planted," directed by CC Weske and produced by Joshua Yadon, Haylee Graham, and Tim Weske.

According to Weske, "Being a full-time mother of two children under three years old, it was a miracle that the film got done! But I believed that He would strengthen me and give me perseverance. It's amazing what you can achieve when you put your trust in the Creator of the Universe."

"(168) is an extremely fun, yet very challenging competition. I believe it truly brings out the best in artists. I would highly recommend it for both new and seasoned filmmakers."

"Planted" earned six awards, including Best Director – CC Weske, Best Screenplay – Haylee Graham, 168 Exclamation Award - Leslie Laursen and Alora Weisz, Best Speed Film, and Best Film.

Best Film Runner-Up went to "Lifeless: A Musical Zomedy" by Darren Cogan, Christopher Shawn Shaw, Susan Shearer, Gary Voelker, and Aaron Fullan. This film excelled, winning in eight categories, including Best Original Score – Aaron Fullan, Best Production Design, Best Comedy Screenplay– Darren Cogan, Best Cinematography – Micah Powell, Best Supporting Actress - Darby Cappillino, 168 Exclamation Award - Victoria Jackson and Best Comedy.

The Best Proof of Concept went to "Hard Side of Miracles," directed by John Fornof and produced by Justin Manntai and Steve Stiles. Since 2016, Producer Justin Manntai has received multiple nominations for various 168 awards. Justin Manntai produced three films in the 2023 competition: "The Likes of You," "Hard Side of Miracles," and "Flatline," which won for Best Write of Passage.

Manntai remarked, "We were filming 'The Likes of You' when 'Hurricane Hillary' was approaching SoCal. Some cast and crew were concerned about the impending storm in Huntington Beach. We all agreed to complete the shoot in one day. Our cast performed remarkably, handling the sudden change with ease.

Ten short films were invited for a first look by the Angel Studios Guild for potential funding and distribution as features and TV. Invited films include: Lifeless - A Musical Zomedy (by Darren Cogan, Christopher Shawn Shaw, Susan Shearer, Gary Voelker, Aaron Fullan), Flatline (by Justin Manntai, James Lee Beeler), Planted (by CC Weske), Hard Side of Miracles (by Justin Manntai), The Last Truth (by Sandra Martin), Brother of the King (by Aaron Kamp), Just Deserts (by Jonason Pauley), Little Daryl (by Jeff Reed), Family Therapy (by Lauren Shelfo), Waves of Grace (by Paul Giret).

The Best Student Film award was presented to “The Art of Kindness” by Michaela Ray of Atlanta, Georgia.

Best Alumni Film was bestowed upon “Dumplings” by Abbey Moe of Idaho Falls, ID. Moe’s second entry, “Christian Hitmen,” secured a 168 Exclamation Award for Steven Fitchpatrick and the Best Making of 168 Film award.

The Best KidVid award was claimed by “Shades of Hope” by Kathryn Owens.
