Responding to Change: Wesleyan Wisdom for Our Lives, Our Church and Our World - 7:00pm

As we walk through our changing world today, join us in looking back on our Wesleyan heritage to uncover the beliefs and practices that make us Methodists and enable us to journey through change. In this six session series, on Wednesdays at 7pm we will examine John Wesley's life and legacy to reconnect with the core beliefs of our faith and to find some Wesleyan wisdom for responding to the changes of our lives, our church, and our world today. Each Wednesday you can join by zoom at <https://zoom.us/j/99925205944> Or by phone dial 1-929-205-6099 and use the Meeting ID: 999 2520 5944. Although the whole series will build upon itself, each session will be self-contained and you are welcome to whatever session(s) you can attend. We hope you'll join us!

The focus of the sessions will be:

April 28: Introducing John Wesley:
Transformer of Souls and Society
May 5: Wesleyan Theology: ReOpening the Heart and Mind
May 12: Methodism in America:
Responding to New Beginnings
May 19: Contemporary Wesleyans: The Journey Forward
May 26: Wesleyan Practices for Us:
Becoming Champions of Change
June 2: Wesleyan Practices for Our Church:
A Change to Keep
