

PILGRIMAGE OF REMEMBRANCE

So That We May Go Forward

Join a small group of pilgrims as we travel to places made significant in what was called the Modern Civil Rights Movement*

Sat., February 29, 2020 8am Depart St. James Episcopal Church (Fairhope) for Montgomery to visit places such as Dexter Avenue/King Memorial Baptist Church, The Rosa Parks Museum, Equal Justice Initiative's Legacy Museum and Memorial to Peace and Justice, The Civil Rights Museum, and Historic Good Shepherd Episcopal Church (overnight in Montgomery)

Sun., March 1, 2020 8am Depart Montgomery for Selma, AL and Brown Memorial AME Church; if space allows, we participate in worship there or at St. Paul's Episcopal Church in Selma; later we gather at Brown Memorial for March through Selma and Across Edmund Pettus Bridge (memorial to Bloody Sunday); Dinner with Ms. Josephine Bolling McCall (author of The Penalty of Success: My Father Was Lynched in Lowndes County, AL and President of The Elmore Bolling Foundation) (overnight in Selma)

Mon., March 2, 2020 8am Depart Selma for Birmingham to visit Kelly Ingram Park; Birmingham Civil Rights Institute; 16th Street Baptist Church; Dynamite Hill; view Poor People's Campaign
3pm Depart B'ham for Fairhope

Expenses—lodging $90-140 per night; low admission fees; Est. costs $350 sgl; $300 dbl; plus food costs depending upon your choices.

Mini-bus made available by St. James Episcopal Church, Fairhope, AL with fuel costs paid by the Commission on Racial Justice and Reconciliation of the Episcopal Diocese of the Central Gulf Coast.
Space limited to the first 10 people to register.

To register for the pilgrimage, please send full contact information to Gary Moore @ psalm82.3and4@gmail.com or for more information call 251.928.3311

*Subject to confirmation, availability and schedules.

 The sooner we book, the better

