

Meet our Team

Brittany Cutshaw joined ECAC in February of 2022 as a Parent Educator, and she recently joined the North Carolina DeafBlind Project as ECAC's Project Lead. She has a background in healthcare administration. She is the mom to 3 boys, the youngest of which is medically complex, with vision and hearing impairment. When she is not working, she will likely be outdoors hiking or otherwise enjoying the mountains of WNC.

Nancy has a background in healthcare and research, focused on the early detection of congenital diseases and hearing impairments in newborns and infants. She, herself is a medical mama to a 5-year-old daughter with intensive medical complexities and Deafblindness, and a 8-year-old son with autism and central auditory processing disorder. Prior to joining the NC DeafBlind Project, Nancy worked as a bilingual parent educator with The Exceptional Children's Assistance Center providing individualized assistance to families with special healthcare and educational needs. Recognizing the importance of self-care, Nancy enjoys trips to the beach, and walking the family dog whenever possible.
