

CHESTER

About a 30-40 minute drive west of West Point, Chester and Warwick have some delightful gems worth driving for!

---

Allan's Falafel

Allan's Falafel in Chester is our General Manager's favorite place to eat Israeli Food, perfect for vegans, carnivores, and omnivores! She raves about the award-winning restaurant's freshly made hummus and falafel while her husband and son cannot get enough of the shawarma. Their fresh juices are incredible!

---

Sugar Loaf Performing Arts Center

Located in Chester/Sugarloaf, Sugar Loaf Performing Arts Center has many events throughout the year that are worth checking out if you are into live performances, music, and theatre!

---

Tin Barn Brewing

Founded by a father-daughter team, Tin Barn Brewing is a great place to eat and enjoy some of the juiciest IPAs and fruited sours in New England. Dog-friendly in their outdoor spaces -- dogs must be leashed at all times.