MONSTERS & DAMES 2016

Emerald City Comicon Artbook. Limited, 1,000! Signed Bookplate! Highly Recommended. Cover by Fiona Staples. 70 pieces of stunning artwork in full color, drawn especially for this convention art book. This is one of our favorite books each year, like a convention sketchbook but with entirely finished work, with artists all doing their very best to outdo their fellow contributors. Bobby Chiu, Cody Vrosh, Daxiong, Teryl Whitlach (whose signed bookplate we include), Jason Howard, Kei Acedera, Mike Huddleston, Peter Bagge, Peter Nguyen, Phil Foglio, Amy Mebberson, Loraine McLees et al. ECCC, 2016.

THE SOMEDAY FUNNIES

Our Highest Recommendation. By Michel Choquette. Art by Moebius, Barry Windsor-Smith, Jack Kirby, Russ Heath, Vaughn Bode, Jeffrey Jones. I'm totally blown away. Imagine a time capsule from 1975, with all the best comics artists doing original strips--packed away until now. Never published. This is it--comic strips created in the early 1970s by world-famous artists and writers such as C. C. Beck, René Goscinny, Harvey Kurtzman, Art Spiegelman, Frank Brunner, Gray Morrow, and Gahan Wilson. And written by Archie Goodwin, Steve Englehart and a ton of other creators. All original one and two page--oversized page--strips about the recently past 1960s of drugs, rebellion, music... Abrams, 2011.

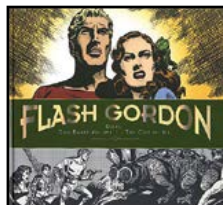

Mature Readers. Note: Copies may have slight bump. SMEH. HC, 12x16, 216, FC $55.00 $27.50

The City of Ice

Dailies Nov. 1951-Oct. 1953. Our Highest Recommendation. By Dan Barry, Harvey Kurtzman, Jack Davis and Frank Frazetta. The first volume of Dan Barry's stunning work from the peak of his career, aided by three EC veterans! They took the strip that had been so magnificent under Alex Raymond and made it their own, with storytelling that may have outpaced Raymond's own. Flash and the lovely Dale Arden encounter escaped convicts, frightening Frost Men, tyrannous kingdoms--and more! Three years of Dan Barry's run. Titan, 2016.

JACKY'S DIARY Signed

Signed & inscribed bookplate! 1959-60. Highly Recommended. By Jacky Mendelsohn. Foreword by Mort Walker. The complete run of the hysterically funny and whimsical strip by Jack Mendelsohn, of life from a nine-year-old's point of view--and art to match. Jack moved on and was soon writing for Carol Burnett, Bill Cosby, Mad magazine, and the Beatles movie Yellow Submarine! Includes a fascinating behind-the-scenes intro by Jack, a heartfelt foreword by Beetle Bailey's Mort Walker and by Mama's Mel Lazarus. Each bookplate is not only signed but personally inscribed. IDW, 2013.

MICHAEL KALUTA SKETCHBOOK SERIES Signed

With exclusive signed bookplate. Highly Recommended. This collection presents all five Kaluta sketchbooks in a handsome oversized hardcover. All selected by the artist from his personal archives--a cornucopia of delightful delineations and lovely line drawings. We still had unsigned, illustrated bookplates he created for us for Metropolis in 1995, which he has now signed to go with this. Here is Ender's Game--five pages of sketches; drawings for two un-produced late night adult cartoon series, Jack Frost, Elves, Krampus and Queen Zeida and much much more. IDW, 2016.

News & Notes

Our new website: We're very pleased with it. ADVANCED SEARCH makes it easier to find artists, writers, publishers, words and phrases. As we catalog new titles, I'm personally adding related & recommended items which also might interest you. We now tell you if anything is low in stock or going to sell out. The large CLOSEOUTS sections list titles which will NOT be relisted, at deep discounts.

PS Art Books SALE (page 9): We have ANOTHER new batch at deep discounts--many slipcased sets ($21.95, was ~~$69.95~~) and regular hardcovers ($19.95, was ~~$48 to $59.99~~). The biggest seller is Planet Comics, then Sheena (all 3), Rulah (all 3), and Roy Thomas Presents Pre-Code Horror. Supply is LIMITED--I am trying hard to bring in plenty but our source is already sold out of some. Once WE sell out, these will return to full retail price since they do very well for us.

2017 Calendars: We already have Boris & Julie Bell's, Fractal Cosmos, Haunted Realms and two by Kinuko Y. Craft. All will appear in our NEXT catalog, in October. As they come in they'll go on our website, in the weekly email or in the bi-weekly print Newsletter. Sign ups for these are on the order blank and website. Or call us.

There are so many outstanding new and relisted items in this catalog I can't touch on them all. My very favorite items are on this page. We also have some excellent new sale items: Naked Cartoonists (page 3), two Ray Bradbury GNs (p 6), two Classics Illustrated special editions (p 7, 23), Canteen Kate and Original Ghost Rider (p 8), The Jade Door (adult, p 15), etc. 1930s Donald Duck and Silly Symphonies strips are finally being collected (p 12). I also like Indeh: A Story of the Apache Wars (back cover), Walt Kelly's Fables and Funnies (back cover), Steampunk: Art of Retro-Futurism (p 18), and the third Weird Love (p 12).

Don't Miss These (pp 19-30) offers many of my favorites from recent catalogs--like the best-selling EC Fan Addict #2 & 3 (p 25)--but I'm out of room! Have a great summer and thanks for your support!

~Bud

AL PLASTINO LAST SUPERMAN STANDING An Illustrated Biography. Highly Recommended.

By Eddy Zeno. Forward by Paul Levitz. Al Plastino was one of the last surviving penciler/inkers of his era. Uncredited on Superman for 1948-1968, he co-created Supergirl, Brainiac, and the Legion of Super-Heroes. His career included working on newspaper strips like Nancy (emulating Bushmiller's style), Ferd'nand, and others. TwoMorrows Publishing, 2016.

BEST OF DC WAR Artist's Edition Our Highest Recommendation.

By Robert Kanigher et al. Art by Joe Kubert, Russ Heath, Alex Toth, John Severin, Jack Kirby et al. A break-out collection that's just stunning. DC produced some of the very finest war (and some anti-war) comics ever. And by the best artists in the field. This includes an amazing selection of artwork: two fold-outs, 11 covers, and tons of top-notch pages. They often featured superb work by both Kubert and Heath. Never before has the original artwork for these been put together in one collection like this. IDW, 2016

RAY BRADBURY'S The Martian Chronicles

★ Recommended. By Dennis Calero. Introduction by Ray Bradbury. Fourteen of Bradbury's famous interconnected science-fiction stories! The Earthmen came by the handful, then the hundreds, then the millions. They swept aside the majestic, dying Martian civilization to build their homes, shopping malls, and cities. Mars began as a place of boundless hopes and dreams, a planet to replace an Earth sinking into waste and war. But ultimately, the Earthmen who came to conquer the red-gold planet awoke to discover themselves conquered by Mars. Hill and Wang, 2011.

ROOK Volume 1 Save Yourself

Collects #1-4. By W.B. DuBay and Steven Grant. Art by Paul Gulacy. When the greatest monsters of the past and future join forces to conquer all of history, only the time traveling adventurer The Rook can stand in their way! A long-running feature in the Warren Magazine Eerie, The Rook is back in an all-new series by a veteran artist. Gulacy was strongly influenced by Steranko and it shows nicely here. We also like the cross-over with The Time Machine by H.G. Wells, touches of steampunk, a trip into space—this one's all over time, like Flashman meets Dr. Who! Dark Horse, 2016.

WONDER WOMAN 77 Volume 1

Collects #1-2, 2014-15. Recommended. By Marc Andreyko. Art by Matt Haley, Drew Johnson, Richard Ortiz et al. Amazonian Princess and Federal Agent Diana Prince—and her alter ego, the superheroine Wonder Woman—is always ready to leap into action, no matter the era. She'll have to do battle with disco-loving Soviet spies at the swinging Studio 52, fight for her own identity after being targeted by the obsessive Doctor Psycho, and save a politician who finds himself in the literal hot seat, not to mention tangle with an enraged Solomon Grundy and her classic nemesis, Cheetah. SHADOW The Last Illusion

The complete 5-issue series. Recommended. By Cullen Bunn. Art by Colton Worley and Giovanni Timpano. "The Shadow feels revitalized in a way only Cullen Bunn could manage." -Geeked Out nation. We very much like this pulp-style, dark story, handsomely painted and featuring a plethora of nasty, outrageous demons. The Shadow infiltrates the sanctuary of The Society of United Magicians, an esoteric enclave of illusionists who are hell-bent on escaping the ultimate trap: death itself! Learning the secret of the so-called "Last Illusion" from the spirit of escape artist Harry Houdini himself, The Shadow becomes the next target of their murderous scheme. Dynamite, 2016.

THOREAU A Sublime Life

By Max Le Roy. Art by A. Dan. "To be a philosopher is not merely to have subtle thoughts, nor even to found a school, but so to love wisdom as to live according to its dictates, a life of simplicity, independence, magnanimity and trust." This biographical graphic novel introduces us to the down-to-earth man himself, who would become a great author (Walden Pond), philosopher and pioneering ecologist—as well as the father of the concept, still fresh today (viz "Occupy Wall St."), of "civil disobedience" which he used against slavery and the encroachment of government. CANTEEN KATE

Highly Recommended. By Matt Baker. Introduction by Bob Burden. Baker honed his skills through the 1940s for several comics publishers, but his tremendous talents came to fruition at St. John Publications, where his realistic style was showcased in western, mystery, and especially romance comics. One quality emerged in whatever Baker drew: his naturalistically gorgeous women. As Burden's intro points out, Baker was the quintessential "Good-Girl" artist others all emulated. St. John's only recurring character was Canteen Kate and Baker drew every adventure of the sexy wartime cutie. Canton Street, 2013.

SUPERGIRL SILVER AGE Omnibus Volume 1

Action Comics #252-307, 1959-63. Highly Recommended.

By Otto Binder, Leo Dorfman and Jerry Siegel. Art by Jim Mooney and Al Plastino. I find these vintage stories charming and fun to read. This was back when Superman was still keeping Supergirl a secret--she had to hide her very existence from the world while also doing super-heroic deeds, much like Superboy did in the early seasons of Smallville. Superman creator Jerry Siegel worked on these, along with the talented Otto Binder and they are quintessential Silver Age stories, fun, innocent, each one complete in itself. These are all backup stories from the back pages of Action Comics. DC, 2016.

SANDMAN MYSTERY THEATRE

Book One The Scorpion

Collects #1-12, 1993-94. By Matt Wagner. Art by Guy Davis, John Watkiss and R.G. Taylor. The year is 1938, and the world is holding its breath--mesmerized by the on-rushing storm that will soon engulf it in World War II. In New York City, one man's sleep is filled with tormenting visions of the evils that mankind visits upon itself, compelling him to act. And so, by night, Wesley Dodds lays aside the trappings of his inherited wealth to roam the shadows as the Sandman, armed with a tranquilizing gas gun and driven by an unrelenting sense of justice. SHEENA QUEEN OF THE JUNGLE

Volume 1

Collects #1-4, 1942-48. Recommended. Art by Robert Webb and Alex Blum. Foreword by Bill Feret and Bill Black. She may still be everyone's favorite yellow-tressed leopard-skin-clad Jungle Jane. She made her first appearance almost 80 years ago (courtesy of Will Eisner and 'Jerry' Iger), swinging through the trees righting wrongs and wielding her knife and spear. In 1938, she premiered in Jumbo Comics #1 where she settled happily into every issue (165 of them) plus a decade in her own title until April 1953. PRE-CODE CLASSICS THE THING

Volume 1

Collects #1-9, 1952-53. Highly Recommended. Foreword by Lawrence Watt-Evans. The extremely offbeat Charlton Comics Pre-Code horror title, featuring long-time DC stalwart Dick Giordano. Lawrence Watt-Evans provides a lengthy introduction. This pushed the envelope with stories of severed heads, headlights, and injury-to-eye. Issue #9 is in Seduction of the Innocent! 2013. PCT01H. HCW, 7x10, 368pg, FC

Volume 2

Collects #10-17, 1952-54. Highly Recommended. By Steve Ditko, Dick Giordano, Dick Ayers, Joe Shuster, Bob Powell et al. This completes the run of this classic and features stunning early work from the legendary Steve Ditko and DC's Dick Giordano, his early work. Wild, bizarre stories, extreme violence: a Necronomicon story, a Hansel & Gretel parody, Cinderella parody, lingerie panels, Ditko's 1st work and cover, an Alice in Wonderland parody, ...it's all here! 2013. PCT02H. HCW, 7x10, 336pg, FC

ROY THOMAS PRESENTS FRANKENSTEIN

Volume 5 Slipcased

Limited, 300! Collects #11-15, 1948. Recommended. Written and drawn by Dick Briefer. Frankenstein in Prize Comics is widely regarded as being America's first ongoing horror series. Our hero meets man-eating plants, green mold that comes to life, darkly sinister babes, crooks and hoodlums, and even actor Boris Karloff in an offbeat story. 2014. FRA05D. HCW, 7x10, 240pg, FC

~~$64.99~~ $21.99

Volume 6 Slipcased

Limited, 300! Collects #16-21, 1948-52. Highly Recommended. Written and drawn by Dick Briefer. Alright--now we get to the stories I like best. With issue #18, Frankenstein took a swing to the dark side. No more humor, it was now time for dark, gothic stories of mayhem and murder. Franky spares no one if he's po'ed or trying to protect anything from dumb critters to little girls, and the bad guys get done in in lovely pre-code fashion. Briefer tightens up his artwork. 2014. Out of Print. FRA06D. HCW, 7x10, 224pg, FC

Volume 7 Slipcased

Limited, 300! Collects #22-27, 1952-53. Highly Recommended. Written and drawn by Dick Briefer, with Mort Meskin and Marvin Stein. Frank takes a dark, pre-code horror turn. Each issue includes two horror tales by Mort Meskin, Marvin Stein, and lots of unknowns. Poor Frankenstein, when he's not killing well-deserving bad guys, he also encounters mummy creatures and a wolfman, is frozen alive, makes friends with a grave-robbing ghoul, and more. 2015. Out of Print. FRA07D. HCW, 7x10, 200pg, FC

Volume 8 Slipcased

Limited, 300! Collects #28-33, 1954. Recommended. Written and drawn by Dick Briefer, with Mort Meskin and Marvin Stein. Here Frankenstein concludes, its dark, sinister turn becomes pure horror. I particularly like these stories, as the mute monster relentlessly deals out harsh, final justice to anyone who wishes him ill. He also became a silent judge-and-jury when he finds others persecuted or wronged. Each issue also includes two back-up stories. 2015. Out of Print. FRA08D. HCW, 7x10, 200pg, FC

PRE-CODE CLASSICS JOURNEY INTO FEAR Volume 1

Collects #1-7, 1951-52. 30 stories. Competing with EC's Tales from the Crypt et al, publisher Superior had the famous "Iger Shop" (who'd done all the Fiction House stories for years) crank out the weirdest, most outré stories they could think up. All in the famous "Jack Kamen-ish" style that they'd learned sold so well, even after Kamen was long gone from their staff! They also figured out skeletons, monsters and pretty girls sold books, so every cover varied that common theme for those early 1950s kids who wanted a good scare. 2016. PCJ01H. HCW, 7x10, 252pg, FC

SOFT BLONDES IN THE CLAWS OF TORTURE HELL

By Sam Savitt, Mort Kunstler, Rafael DeSoto, Basil Gogos et al. 50 full page illustrations, 16 in color. Men's adventure magazines were the pulps of the 1950s and 1960s, pandering to young men with luridly illustrated stories of war, sleaze and savagery. They arose partly in response to the Comics Code in 1954, as a way of circumventing censorship in "adults-only" magazines. They also relived the excesses of World War II and Korea, with new battles against Nazis, dictators, and madmen, co-starring all the unclad beautiful women you could ever imagine! Complete stories! NELVANA OF THE NORTHERN LIGHTS

Complete Collected Stories, 1941-47. Highly Recommended. By Adrian Dingle. First appearing in 1941, Nelvana was tasked with protecting Canada's northern lands. She could fly at incredibly fast speeds, become invisible, and even turn into dry ice. She used her great powers to ward off Nazi invaders, shady fur traders, subterranean mammoth men, and interdimensional ether people. She was the first Canadian super hero, pre-dating Wonder Woman herself! CGA, 2014.

CLASSICS ILLUSTRATED #26 Frankenstein

Recommended. By Mary W. Shelley. Art by Robert H. Webb and Ann Brewster. This graphic novel adaptation of the quintessential horror tale is wonderfully illustrated in cinematic style. In fact, this isn't the watered down version, and our poor monster literally kills and kills again, misunderstanding only compounding his angst and misery. It's a sad tale, nicely illustrated by two classics veterans. Jack Lake, 2008.

THE ADVENTURES OF SWEET GWENDOLINE

★ Highly Recommended. By John Willie. This is the massively revised edition that is virtually unavailable today, since the publisher doesn't deal with bookstores or Amazon or Diamond. 25 years after the first printing of this amazing book, this tribute to John Alexander Scott Coutts (1902-1962), a.k.a. John Willie, has been expanded to twice the original size! Willie still stands as the finest bondage artist ever and his stories of Sweet Gwen are classics, first published in rarely-seen specialty magazines of the late 1940s and early '50s Belier, 1999. Mature Readers.

WALT KELLY'S FABLES AND FUNNIES

Dell Comics Stories, 1942-49. Highly Recommended. Compiled by David W. Tosh. Introduction by John E. Petty. Expanding on the earlier volume Walt Kelly's Fairy Tales, this goes beyond the one Dell title Fairy Tale Parade to include a wide swath of Kelly's wonderful pre-Pogo kid's comic stories. Here are carefully selected and rarely seen works that originally appeared in issues of Dell Comics' Animal Comics, Four Color specials like Christmas With and Easter With Mother Goose, Our Gang with Tom and Jerry, Raggedy Ann and Andy, and more. Dark Horse, 2016. WKFFH. HCW, 7x10, 280, FC

PRINCE VALIANT Volume 13

Sunday Pages, 1961-62. Highly Recommended. By Hal Foster. Foreword by Charles Vess. From the Middle East to the road to Rome, and on the high seas from Thule to England to the Mediterranean, danger follows the noble Prince of Thule in Hal Foster's Arthurian-adventure newspaper pages. Val's son Arn is kidnapped and daringly rescued, and Val and Arn continue to adventure together as the young boy is growing into a capable and fast-thinking young man. When Val returns home, he is greeted by the newest member of his family--a baby boy named Galan. Fantagraphics, 2016.

DAWN & VAMPIRELLA

Recommended. By Joseph Michael Linsner. Collects Dawn/Vampirella #1-5 and 15 pages of extra art & features, all by Joseph Michael Linsner, the celebrated creator of Dawn. He writes and illustrates the first-ever crossover event for his pin-up goddess, teaming her with--and pitting her against--horror icon Vampirella! When the silver-tongued demon Masodik kidnaps these beautiful, powerful women, he demands that the two engage in a catfight. But the ladies suggest combat in a more sophisticated way: a storytelling contest! Plus new introduction by Linsner. Dynamite, 2015.

INDEH A Story of Apache Wars

Highly Recommended. By Ethan Hawke and Greg Ruth. 1872 in the Apache nations were torn apart by decades of war. One young warrior loses his family and everything he loves. After having a vision, he convinces Cochise to lead an attack against the Mexican village of Azripe. It is this wild display of courage that transforms Goyakha into the hero Geronimo. As they battle, lose loved ones, and desperately cling to their land and culture, they would utter, "Indeh," or "the dead." Grand Central, 2016.

APES & BABES

New Softcover Edition. Highly Recommended.

By Frank Cho. Finally in soft-cover, first published in 2009 and long unavailable. From the award-winning creator of Liberty Meadows, Zombie King, and Jungle Girl, this showcases Cho's past and present illustrations of the female form and fantastic beasts. Frank remains at the top of the good-girl artists, his sketchbooks and collections among our most popular sellers. From serious nude studies, to Conan and Dejah Thoris, from comic book covers to specialty, previously unseen works. A wonderful collection, oversized. Image Comics, 2016.
