Abner J. Mikva was a Family Camper at Echo with his children and grandchildren in 2005. Ab passed away on Monday, July 4th after a short illness. Chuck Hessinger sent the following story: A short inside camp story about Abner Mikva. Ab and his family came up around 2005 to Camp Echo family camp. One morning after breakfast I went to KYBO West to supervise the service task. On my heels was Ab, followed by his wife Zoe, and the rest of the Pfander family, all reporting to duty. Ab didn't wait for an assignment. Ab, former federal judge, congressman, and counselor to the President, grabbed the toilet brush off of the shelf and went to work. Zoe was not about to miss this prize Kodak moment, and I am sure was rewarded with a family treasure.

More importantly, in about 30 seconds, Ab drew a line in the sand around entitlement that has lived with me ever since. If he could do that service task, who is anyone else to take a pass because they are above the work? Thanks Ab.

Carolyn R. Morby (Camper 1957, Staff 50s, 60s and 70s) passed away after a long illness on July 13, 2016. A memorial bar-b-que and campfire were held at Camp Echo to honor her.

Carolyn, affectionately known as Matt, is second from the left in this photo from an Echo Carnival in the 60s.

Diego Para-Duque (Staff 1995, 1997) passed away on June 16, 2016 in his home town of Bogota, Colombia after a fall from a balcony of his 8th floor office building. Diego leaves behind his wife Ana and their daughter.
