

KNOW YOUR COUNTY PEERS

PAUL L. DECKER

WAUKESHA COUNTY BOARD CHAIR

*I have been in county government since...*2011.

*One of my proudest moments was when...*Waukesha County completed our Health and Human Services building under budget.

*When I get a weekend all to myself I...*Read, golf, garden, or cook. Sometimes I do it all!

*My hero is...*Leonardo da Vinci.

*My favorite restaurant is...*Pacific Bistro, where I like to order sashimi.

*Knowing what I know now, in my younger days I would have...*Gone into public service.

*The book/movie I could read/watch over and over is...*1776 by David McCullough.

*Perhaps the most questionable action in my youth was when I...*Drove my grandpa's tractor on county roads to another town.

*If I could live anywhere, I would...*Still live in Wisconsin, since I lived other places already.

*Growing up, I always wanted to be...*Active and engaged!

*The most interesting person I ever met was...*Sam Walton.

*I'd like to have dinner with...*Neil deGrasse Tyson and discuss future possibilities.

*If I could serve in any presidential cabinet it would be in the position of...*Secretary of Education under President G.W. Bush.
