The Talk Institute has been providing programs at Oak & McAuliffe for over 10 years allowing parents and kids to learn to talk “THE Talk” together. We build and support open communication between parents and their children by providing factual, age-appropriate information about sex and growing up in a fun, group environment. Class format includes mini lectures, videos, games, and role-plays to accommodate a variety of learning styles. Course fee covers ALL 5 sessions. We strive to supplement the school system’s sex education by providing detailed parental participation, the key to what makes The Talk Institute’s programs so successful and rewarding for families. We hope your family joins us!

Youth ages 9-11, with parent(s) attend 5 weekly 2-hour classes. Boys & girls are taught separately.

Topics range from:

- Growth & Development
- Male & Female Anatomy
- Puberty and Hygiene
- What is “Sex” & Sexuality
- Pregnancy & Conception
- Relationships & Family
- Bullying & Resisting Peer Pressure
- And more
