

Shaare Tefila
Where you will always belong

PRESENT

Wick & Flick

Havdalah & Film Discussion

Join Us For One or Both - February 20 & March 20

 Cantor Rebecca Apt Will Lead Havdalah for Both Dates ***

* Watch the Movies Ahead of Time and Then Participate in an Enlightening Discussion! ****

ZOOM LINK for Both Dates

The Windermere Children: 6:35, Evening Minyan - 6:50, Havdalah

& Film Discussion: Rabbi Grossman of Beth Shalom will lead a conversation on The Windermere Children, named the Best European TV Movie of the Year 2020 by Prix Europa. The story follows the children and staff of a camp set up to help child survivors of the Holocaust rebuild their lives; it is based on real-life stories of children who attended this camp near Lake Windermere, England. Game of Thrones fans will recognize Iain Glen in one of the lead roles.

Watch Options: PBS Passport, rent on Amazon Prime Video, FandangoNOW or Vudu for $3.99, rent on YouTube or Google Play for $2.99.

Past Life: 8:05, Evening Minyan - 8:20, Havdalah & Film

Discussion: Rabbi Layman of Shaare Tefila will lead a conversation on this Israeli film from 2016. This is the story of two sisters, one an introverted ambitious classical music composer, and the other a combative liberal magazine editor, try to unravel a disturbing wartime mystery that has cast a foreboding shadow on their entire lives. During their trans-European odyssey, they realize that freedom from the shackles of the past requires painful sacrifices, as does the struggle to discover one's unique voice.

Watch Options: free on Amazon Prime Video, Tubi & Vudu, rent on iTunes or Amazon for $3.99, rent on YouTube or Google Play for $2.99, rent on FandangoNOW for $5.99.

Questions? Contact:

Babette Cohn, Janet Laufer or Margie Steiner