Celebrating our 72nd year

Vol. 72 #4

January 2023 - Tevet 5783—Shevat 5783

FROM THE RABBI'S STUDY
RABBI JONAH LAYMAN

Wishes for a Happy New Year

Many in the traditional Jewish community refuse to celebrate what they call the secular new year. January 1 among the very Orthodox is just another day, while the first day of Tishrei - Rosh Hashanah - is the real and only new year. Though I understand the religious sentiment from which this comes - wanting to focus on our heritage - we can't help but get caught up in the cultural holidays of the society in which we live. January 1 is the new year, and though we personally may not formally make resolutions for the new year, we can certainly reflect on what has transpired and what we hope to change in the year ahead.

As you may recall, as I shared with you on Rosh Hashanah, this past year has been filled with personal challenges and family illness. Though, thank God, most have been resolved, some are ongoing. I thank you for your concern and support. I also know that many of you are dealing with your own health and other issues. It is gratifying to see how our Chesed committee has been there for you in your time of need and how our community always supports one another. May we be blessed in this new year with continued support and with good health.

This past year has also seen a dramatic rise in antisemitic acts of violence and rhetoric. Celebrities have spewed their racist venom and though some have suffered financially for their rants, it is clear that the hatred is being well received. As of this writing, the vice president's husband - Doug Emhoff - convened a White House sponsored event to raise awareness and begin to brainstorm ways in which we can combat this rising tide of hatred. I pray that in this coming year that the commission bears fruit and that we will see a dramatic decline in this frightening trend.

May 2023 be a year of peace and justice. May it be one of health and happiness for you and your family.

Rabbi Jonah Layman

PRESIDENT
ERIC MARSHALL

What a crazy month it has been for me personally. I have not been to synagogue since before Thanksgiving, and I miss my community.

I went on an unplanned 2-week business trip the Monday after Thanksgiving. When I got back, after settling in at home again, I tested positive for Covid. I spent the next 10 days in isolation sleeping a lot and trying not to get anyone else in my family sick.

I'm thankful for technology, as I was able to Facetime with Lori and the kids for the first few days of Hanukkah. Sitting in my bedroom, I was able to watch as everyone lit candles and opened gifts. It would have been nice to be in the same room, but we are all unfortunately accustomed to these disruptions in our day-to-day routines.

As I'm now no longer positive for Covid and feeling much better, I hope to be back seeing everyone again.

I hope everyone had a great Hanukkah and have a safe and healthy 2023.

Thank You
Eric

BABETTE COHN, DIRECTOR OF EDUCATION &
PROGRAMMING
BCOHN@SHAARETEFILA.ORG

The children of Chavaya had a fantastic Hanukkah celebration on December 18 that included some singing, a competitive Hanukkah Quiz Show, and activities including cookie decorating, card making, a dreidel tournament, and eating lots of latkes!

When we get together again on January 8 there will be a special program about performing Mitzvot/Commandments and how we can help people around us in ways both big and small. The morning will begin with a back-to-school breakfast.

After the children reconnect over a meal they will participate in learning about mitzvot as well as doing some projects that put mitzvot into action, all the while learning about each one they are performing.

Chavaya classes return to their regular program later in January. Kitah Bet will focus on the time that we mark as holy, such as Shabbat and the Sh'mita/Sabbatical Year; Kitah Gimel will begin their next Doing Jewish unit, Community Responsibility; and Kitah Alef will discuss what a Jewish home looks like it, including the symbols that are found. There will be a small change in personnel for Kitah Dalet as Morah Sara leaves for a semester abroad; assistant teacher Morah Donie will take over as the teacher for the class for the rest of the year. Looking ahead to February, we will have a school-wide Tu B'Shevat Seder on the 5th, then begin learning more about Purim late in the month.

If your child has not experienced Junior Congregation yet this year consider coming in January 21 for the next time we gather. It is never too late to get in on the fun! Each month brings surprises that make that Shabbat special.

Programs like the mitzvah one coming up on January 8 can only be successful with help from parents like you. If you have not helped with something previously this year I invite you to contact me to discuss volunteering - it is a fun way to see what is happening with your child(ren) on Sunday mornings!

B'Shalom,

Babette

Happy New Year!! Many members of the community celebrated Hanukkah on December 20 with the lighting of our electric chanukiyah, food and a performance by Cantor Allen “Jewdini” Leider. By day, Allen is the Director of Lifelong Learning at Temple Rodef Shalom in Falls Church, VA. Each year for Hanukkah he performs magic as Jewdini! Everyone was amazed and entertained on a chilly December evening.

Our year of programs continues this winter with something for everyone. Take a look at the list below and consider participating in something new!

NEW SUPPORT GROUP

A support group for family members of those with dementia to start in January 2023.

Lori Marshall, LMSW, and associated with Olney Counseling Center, as well as fellow congregant, will start facilitating "a support group for family members (spouse, parent, sibling, partner) of those with dementia."

The support group known as Chug Chesed or "Kindness Circle," will start in the second week of January 2023 through June 2023, and will meet over zoom twice a month for an hour each session.

The group will create a confidential space for participants to give and receive support on their journey. Shul members will have the opportunity to speak candidly, share their experiences, and listen to peers in all stages of their experience. While everyone's experience is unique, being with others on a similar path can be powerful and healing.

This is a pilot program sponsored by your Chesed Committee of Shaare Tefila.

The Social Action Committee had a great fall of giving through our Season of Tikun Olam. Thanks to everyone for your consistent support and generosity.

In December, we were able to partner with the Kosher-Style Comedy on a fundraiser for NNIA—the New Neighbors Interfaith Alliance. Several of our congregants have been volunteering for NNIA in various capacities with recently resettled Afghan refugee families. The need is great for both financial donations and volunteer time. Please contact Mike Froehlich for more information mikefroe@comcast.net.

We hope to become more involved with social justice through the legislative process this year. As such, we will be closely following the upcoming 90-day legislative session beginning in early January. We will provide information via JCRC for opportunities to attend sessions, have your voice heard, etc.

In February, we will be partnering with the National Council of Jewish Women to observe Repro Shabbat, February 17-18. NCJW launched Repro Shabbat in 2021 to highlight Judaism's support for reproductive freedom, and to come together as a community to talk about bodily autonomy and reproductive health care.

Last year, more than 900 synagogues, Hillels, communal organizations, and others across 43 U.S. states and territories celebrated Repro Shabbat. We will share details as they become available.

In late March, we will once again be participating in Good Deeds Week, organized by the Jewish Federation of Greater Washington. Last year, we piggy-backed onto the efforts of 2 other organizations.

We hope to do something similar in 2023 and are looking forward to even greater participation in our community!!

As we approach 2023, we are reminded that what the New Year brings will depend a lot on what we bring to the New Year. Start your New Year by committing to be involved in your ST community. Whether it's attending more services, social programs, social action programs, events, classes, or volunteering. You will be amazed at the uplifting effects it will have on your overall well-being. In return, your ST family will be so grateful for your support in keeping our synagogue vital and strong.

This year our ST membership team will strive to create greater engagement and more friendships between our members. New friendship/CHAVURAH groups are forming now (ie: RS/ young family groups and two active empty nester groups.) Please consider joining one of these groups as it will extend your connection to our synagogue and introduce you to new members that have similar interests and beliefs as yourself. If you are interested in participating in one of these new groups, please contact me, Cilla Grosberg at cgrosberg58@gmail.com. We will be happy to place you in one of these new groups.

Our first CHAVURAH RS/ young family group will be meeting on Sunday, January 29th at 11:00am. In the Winer Gallery. Again, if you're interested to attend contact me at cgrosberg58@gmail.com. In addition, please save Sunday, March 19, 2023, for our Friendship/CHAVURAH BRUNCH; from 10 am to noon. Friendship groups will come together to enjoy a lovely dairy brunch, schmooze, and share stories of what their groups have been up to the last couple of years during Covid. This is an in-house event at our synagogue. More details to follow in next month's Shofar membership article.

In closing, please save the date and attend ST Night of Sweet Laughter comedy Fundraiser on Saturday, March 11, 2023, at 8:00pm. We are thrilled to be hosting this signature event again with Kaleidoscope Enterprises, Irwin Weinstein MC, guest comedian Jeff Hysen, and headliner, well-known comedian Chris Coccia. Check out Chris's bio and material on his website (<https://chriscoccia.com>) He has great material, and timing and is very funny!

Ticket and registration information will be sent by email, and posted on our website shortly. So save the date, and register quickly. This is one of our signature programs and I'm sure since it's our first in-person comedy night in over two years, it will be a sold-out event.

May your New Year be healthy, safe, and full of light and happiness, and may all your new intentions blossom throughout the New Year.

Shalom,
Cilla Grosberg

Hello all Sisterhood members,

Hanukkah has come and gone and now 2023 is here. December was a quiet month for Sisterhood, but that is because the Sisterhood Board was busy with planning many great activities.

On February 5th, we have our Tu B'shevat Chocolate Seder in Gaithersburg. The cost and sign up sheet should be coming out within the next 2 weeks. If you need a ride or would like to carpool please call me at 301-512-0694. If you could please leave a message and I will get back to you as quickly as I can. Together we will arrange for someone to pick you up and drop you off again at your house. This is an event that we have been invited to by Kehilat Shalom. Last year this was done via Zoom but they have decided to have the event in person this year. I know I personally had lots of fun with all of the goodies that were part of the package last year. This year I am hoping it will be even better. Do not miss being a part of our event and getting back in touch with your Sisterhood members again.

With it being so cold, I wanted to leave you with some warm weather thoughts. Our Women's Passover Seder this year will take place on March 13, 2023. Please leave the date open as this event has always been one of our most popular events. If these events sound fun to you and you want to pay the member rate contact me directly either via phone or via email at relaybenns@gmail.com and I will arrange to have a membership form sent to you. Just remember not all activities for Sisterhood have a member fee. I would be upset if you missed a fun event due to not getting membership dues in timely.

I hope 2023 is as good if not better than 2022 was for everyone.
