Celebrating our 72nd year

Vol. 72 #3

December 2022 - Kislev 5783—Tevet 5783

FROM THE RABBI'S STUDY
RABBI JONAH LAYMAN

Hanukkah and Christmas

This year, Hanukkah coincides with Christmas. The seventh day of Hanukkah falls on December 25 and therefore, for the cynics among us, the holiday will be that much more commercialized than usual. As we know, Hanukkah and Christmas don't always coincide, in fact, a few years ago the first night of Hanukkah fell on Thanksgiving! But our holiday calendar is based on our Jewish/Hebrew calendar which is more dependent on the cycle of the moon than on the sun. If we based our 12-month calendar only on the moon we would have 354 days. Those missing 11 days have to be made up which then makes the holidays fall at different times and causes us to remark that Rosh Hashanah is early or late. (This reminds me of a story the dean of my rabbinical school told us about 2 very Jewish young men who had attended yeshiva their whole lives. They were now at Brooklyn College and in striking up a conversation with a classmate they asked, "so, when is Christmas this year?")

Aside from the calendar logistics, the overlap of Christmas and Hanukkah raises very important questions about our holiday and our place within American culture and society. Hanukkah - despite all the hoopla - is really a minor holiday. It was added late to our calendar - 2,000 years ago as opposed to 3,000 for other holidays - and marks the victory of the Maccabees over the Greek army. Though the theme is important - good over evil - the holiday has been at times difficult to observe. In the middle ages, when Jews were persecuted and oppressed, our ancestors were afraid to light candles and observe the holiday. It was a challenge for the Jews to see God's might and support while living in the ghetto or being forced to move from one land to another.

And in our day, that religious theme of good over evil gets swallowed up by the commercialization of gift-giving. Focus is more on the exchange of gifts and playing dreidel than realizing exactly what the holiday is all about.

If we can this year, let's try to devote a few moments while we light the candles each night to think about the Maccabees. Let's think about our place as a minority group in America and be sure that we stand up against the rising tide of antisemitism. May this Hanukkah be one of peace, health, and happiness.

Happy Hanukkah,

Rabbi Jonah Layman

I hope everyone had a great Thanksgiving filled with too much food and just enough family. Personally, it was the first time without my mother-in-law. This has always been "her" holiday, which made it difficult. We hosted at our house, and it was nice to have family around to enjoy the day.

I'm going to spend the rest of my article bragging a bit. This past week has been exciting for our family. Our son Eli will be graduating from Towson University in May. As he is in ROTC, it was already decided he would be entering the Army as an officer after graduation.

This past Wednesday, he was given his branching, or career field, when he enters the Army. Based on his national ROTC ranking and his desire, he will branch aviation. This means he will become a helicopter pilot.

Lori and I couldn't be prouder of Eli. This is a very desired branching and Eli earned this through his performance in college and in ROTC. We are excited he will be learning to fly helicopters while serving his country.

Thanks for letting me brag for a bit.

Thank You,

Eric

This fall seems to have flown by here at Shaare Tefila. In the world around us the midterm elections have come and gone, with many prognosticators' predictions falling short. Before 2023, when the news will continue to overflow with talk of the next presidential election (though it feels like the last one just happened), give yourself the gift of participation at one or more of our programs for everyone! Our program calendar, linked here is continually updated as dates are added or altered. Take a few minutes to look at it - you may find something that piques your interest!

Please RSVP to Babette Cohn so we know you are coming! Registration is available on ShulCloud here; just select 'Gan Katan' when picking your child's grade for the year.
- ♦ Havdalah Experience, 12/10, 7:00pm with special guest, Rak Shalom! - come for our first community Havdalah program in Olney since March 2020!! - ♦ Community Candlelighting Celebration for Hanukkah, 12/20, 7:00pm with special guest, Cantor Allen "Jewdini" Leider - join us at Shaare Tefila for our annual Hanukkah gathering. We will sing some songs, light the chanukiyah/Hanukkah menorah, and be entertained by the magic stylings of Cantor Allen "Jewdini" Leider. By day he is a musician, singer, composer (of 'Lots of Latkes') and the Director of Lifelong Learning at Temple Rodef Shalom in Falls Church, but on Hanukkah he becomes Jewdini!! We will enjoy some Hanukkah treats and have a chance to catch up with friends as well. We need volunteers to help make this program a success. If you are willing to help decorate, set up and/or clean up send me an email to let me know!

As always, we count on volunteer support to help our programs be successful. Feel free to contact me if you can offer your time, knowledge and/or skills to lead a program, or share your ideas for speakers and other programs.

November 6th Make One Take One Event

My mother, Rae Paley, passed away last year. She was a truly giving person. Always preparing a plate for those in her condo building that didn't have a home cooked holiday meal. My father and I wanted to honor her memory by preparing a few of her Thanksgiving recipes. So, on November 6th we were joined in the Shaare Tefila kitchen by our friends and members of the congregation to prepare a few of these dishes to be delivered to members of the congregation who would most appreciate them.

We hope to continue this tradition in the future with the support of the Chesed Committee.

- Joy Salzman

If you were not able to join us on November 13th at the Shaare Tefila Marketplace/Shuk, you really missed out on quite a wonderful event! We were able to wander around the Social Hall and select Holiday and personal gifts from an assortment of fourteen vendors. Some vendors were synagogue members, one was all grown up and returning to visit her old stomping grounds, and the bulk were friends of members or those who were outstanding farmers' markets and vendors from the area. Gosh, they really had wonderfully unique items to show us, and we bought them throughout the day! There was coffee, tea, and tantalizing nosh to keep us nourished as we worked hard at spending money and filling our shopping bags with presents galore.

Sisterhood and the Men's Club joined together to make this Shuk run smoothly, and the Iras (Kolmaister and Levine) were busily snapping pictures for a future edition of the Washington Jewish Week. Of course, we must thank our own porter, Luis, who made it all happen, setting-up tables and organizing the morning in his most efficient and cheerful manner. The day was most successful because of the coordination of our Executive Director and our Educational Leader, and we thank them for their hard work and flexibility.

What an enjoyable adventure in salesmanship and the rekindling of old friendships! Mazel Tov to all!

This was written to the Social Action Committee from Miri Gottlieb, Operations Administrator of Yad Yehuda, for all of Shaare Tefila.

"On behalf of the Capital Kosher Pantry of Yad Yehuda, thank you for spearheading, organizing and so successfully promoting your shul's recent drive on our organization's behalf. Shaare Tefila Congregation outdid yourselves with the food, personal care items, cleaning supplies and funds that you generously donated to Yad Yehuda. May you always be blessed to give to others.

We just finished celebrating the wonderful holiday of Thanksgiving. It is truly one of my favorite secular holidays and if you didn't know any better you would think that Thanksgiving should be a Jewish holiday. It has all the right ingredients to make it fit into that category like having a great meal and gathering friends and family, and it's a holiday to reflect on all that we have to be grateful for in our lives. A perfect combination of Jewish traditions and values! Rabbi Artson wrote an article on that exact subject "Why Jews enjoy celebrating Thanksgiving." In it, he states, "the term Jew comes from the Hebrew word "Yehudah" meaning thanks, joy, gratitude. At the core of the Jewish way is a resilient joy that directs our attention toward the blessings we already have, those we need to work toward to realize, and the need to share those blessings in community."

It is those feelings of joy, gratitude, and the need to share those experiences with the community that reminds me of our Shaare Tefila family. From our wonderful spiritual leaders Rabbi Layman and Cantor Adina, supportive administrative staff (Briana Porter and Patti Budreau), our Director of Education & Programming, Babette Cohn, and Mara Lansky as well as our religious school teachers, our great group of volunteers who help run social, educational, and spiritual programs (a very special thank you and appreciation to my membership co-chairs Ellie Alpert, Sherry Cohen, and Bess Teller, who support our ST membership goals!) and our committed and focused lay leaders, ST President, Eric Marshall, and our Board of Directors who strive to keep our building and synagogue fiscally strong; we truly are blessed and have such a great synagogue community!

Our ST family and I are also very grateful for our newest members who have joined this past year. They enrich our community with their support and joy of celebrating Jewish life, traditions, holidays, learning, and Tikkun Olum. Please take this opportunity, to reach out to our newest members with an email or phone call to introduce yourself and begin a new friendship.

Hello all Sisterhood members,

December is here and that means that Hanukkah is around the corner. Our first ever shuk was a great success so much so that we are hoping to have the event next year. I hope that you attended and were able to get lots of presents for your family and friends. I know myself and the rest of the board were able to get gifts that we might not have been able to get anywhere else. Please let myself or anyone of the Sisterhood board members know if you have any suggestions for next year's event.

We have decided to postpone the JCrafts olive oil making on December 4th. Please look for an announcement on what the new date will be in 2023.

We are looking forward to our next event which will be Tu B'shvat chocolate sedar on February 5, 2023. We will again be celebrating the holiday with Tehilat Shalom of Gaithersburg. We will give more details in the coming weeks including if the event will be on Zoom again or in person.
