

INCLUSION: WHAT PARENTS CAN DO!

#InclusionMeansAll

FREE TRAINING SERIES

Hamilton Public Library
1 Justice Samuel A Alito Jr Way,
Hamilton Township, NJ

Sept. 10th Part 1
Sept. 24th Part 2
6:30pm-8:00pm

Participants will apply the knowledge they learn in this hands-on training. They will learn to create more inclusive opportunities in schools and communities for ALL children. This is a two-part training:

- Part 1: Learn how planning for MEANINGFUL Inclusion can make a difference. Let's make a plan to include.
- Part 2: Learn how Strength Based IEPs and SMART Goals can help support students with disabilities.

To register online: <https://inclusiontrainingseriescentral2019.eventbrite.com>

To register by phone or for more information:

Call: (973) 642-8100 ext. 123

E-mail: start@spanadvocacy.org

START-Engaging Parents of Students with Disabilities (START-EPSD) is a partnership between the New Jersey Department of Education, Office of Special Education Programs (NJOSEP) and SPAN Parent Advocacy Network.