

Southwest NJ Special Education Parent Partners A Virtual Gathering

Parents ARE part of the equation. The solution requires partnership from ALL. Let's come together this Fall. #ParentVoices

Parent Partnerships have never been more important than they are right now. What opportunities are there for you to partner with your child's teacher; with the district, or even with other parents to improve outcomes for students? Let's come together to network and share strategies around building powerful partnerships that will benefit us and our children.

- Discuss school reopening
- Learn about available resources
- Network with other parents and parent groups in the region.

"Empowered Parents: Educated, Engaged, Effective!"

Thursday, October 15th @ 7:00 pm

REGISTER HERE: <https://swnjq3p2p.eventbrite.com>

Questions, or for help with registration:

Debbie Esposito, desposito@spanadvocacy.org / 201-873-6473

START-Engaging Parents of Students with Disabilities (START-EPSD) is a partnership between the New Jersey Department of Education, Office of Special Education Programs (NJOSPE) and SPAN Parent Advocacy Network.