

Join our NJ Influenza Action Group!

Participating public health organizations must be based in or serve New Jersey residents and include health care centers, schools, child care centers, physicians' offices, and more. Members will receive benefits including an influenza digital toolkit, the chance to provide input in the Power to Protect campaign, and opportunities to network with other organizations at exclusive virtual events.

To join the Action Group, click HERE.