WHO WE ARE. WHAT WE DO. WHY WE DO IT.

Since 1977, the Private Care Association (PCA) has been committed to an aggressive advocacy program supporting consumer choice in home care. PCA supports the rights of consumers to self-direct their care, to retain access to the lower-cost option of home care provided by self-employed professional caregivers and, of course, the rights of for-profit caregiver registries that provide the critical role of matching pre-screened independent professional care providers with consumers. PCA does this through its active government relations program designed to present its position to public policymakers. As the only national voice for caregiver registries, the PCA continues to expand its membership in order to develop a greater capability for nationwide grassroots advocacy to promote consumer choice and the consumer-directed model of care.

For 43 years, PCA has been committed to educating, connecting with, and protecting the consumer-directed care model; Caregiver Registry, Nurse Registry, Referral Agents. Whether providing insight and background on federal and state issues, through our state chapters, impacting our industry or the latest business strategies, technology, hosting our annual conference and other events. PCA enables our members to remain compliant and operate with intentional best practices for continued growth.

The 2020 Annual Conference with Florida Best Practices will take place in Orlando, FL October 21 - 23. Attendees will be immersed in the latest legislation, innovations, business strategies, best practices and methods throughout the conference. They will also hear from industry influencers, experts and interactive sessions on a range of must-see topics.

Throughout the conference, leading vendors will be exhibiting their latest offerings supporting home care providers across the country. Take advantage of this opportunity to discover the newest competitive strategies, find out what's cutting-edge, and network with key innovators across the industry all in one location.
