

Larry's Letter for February

By

Larry Helminiak

The Maryland General Assembly is in session. If this is like any other year, nearly 3,000 bills will be submitted for consideration. Most will not make it out of committee but many will become law.

With a new president in office who is from the business community, expect many laws, such as those dedicated to regulating business, to be changed or eliminated.

Last month, I suggested that every business owner join their particular trade associations. This month, I suggest that you actually talk to your Maryland legislators to get an idea of what's coming down (or up) from Annapolis that will affect your business.

But how can I talk to my Senator or Delegate? Where do I go? Glad you asked.

The Republican Central Committee of Carroll County holds an annual breakfast and invites all the elected officials who represent you in the county and in Annapolis. You are free to ask questions.
