

Rob Bowman
President, R+L Global Logistics

Rob is the President of R+L Global Logistics and has dedicated much of his career to the logistics and transportation industry. A veteran of the U.S. Army, he served in operations Desert Shield and Desert Storm during the Gulf War, where he also focused on logistics needs. After returning home, Rob earned a degree in Supply Chain Management from the University of Maryland.

In 2000, Rob co-founded and found success with the Accelerated Freight Group. Looking to expand and further showcase his expertise, he joined R+L Carriers in 2007. After helping expand their truckload brokerage and logistics divisions, he became the top candidate to lead R+L Global/R+L Truckload.

Under Rob's leadership, R+L Global Logistics has grown tremendously and is now one of the largest logistics companies in the United States. During all this time, Rob has also raised a family and loves spending time with his children and grandchildren.
