Giving Tuesday

December 1, 2026 • A day to give back

Giving Tuesday is December 1, 2026—a day to celebrate generosity and support organizations making a difference. Through its Mission of the Church budget, the Presbytery of Arkansas supports ministries that feed neighbors, care for children and older adults, provide educational opportunities, and nurture faith.

Explore some of the organizations our presbytery supports:

Ferncliff Camp and Conference Center

From summer camps and retreats to disaster assistance and environmental education, Ferncliff creates opportunities to grow in faith, serve others, and care for creation.

LEARN MORE & GIVE

The Little Rock Stewpot

The Stewpot serves meals and offers hospitality to neighbors experiencing hunger and hardship in downtown Little Rock.

LEARN MORE & GIVE

Vera Lloyd Presbyterian Family Services

Vera Lloyd supports children, youth, and families through compassionate care, education, and supportive services.

LEARN MORE & GIVE

Presbyterian Village

Presbyterian Village provides a caring community for older adults, with support that enhances residents' quality of life.

LEARN MORE & GIVE

Lyon College

With its Presbyterian heritage, Lyon College helps students learn, serve, and prepare for lives of purpose.

LEARN MORE & GIVE

University of the Ozarks

Rooted in its Presbyterian heritage, the University of the Ozarks provides educational opportunities that encourage learning, service, and community engagement.

LEARN MORE & GIVE

Every act of generosity matters

These are just a few of the many ministries and organizations making a difference across Arkansas. This Giving Tuesday, consider supporting a ministry close to your heart through a gift, volunteer service, or prayer. Together, we share God's love through kindness and service.