COMMUNICATIONS TIMELINE

#iGIVECATHOLIC

COMMUNICATIONS TIMELINE:

SEPTEMBER

- Pick your project or purpose. Craft compelling stories to share and draft/schedule e-blasts.
 - ❖ Tip: Telling a story gives you the chance to share the impact that your donors' support will have. When people have a better understanding of your cause and why it's important, they'll be more likely to contribute.
- Plan day-of event to generate excitement.
 - ❖ Tip: Be unique, remember your audience and think of ways to leverage (media, social media, etc.).
- Create your social media content calendar.
 - ❖ Tip: Be creative, tie back to your mission and impact, think of visuals.

COMMUNICATIONS TIMELINE:

OCTOBER

- Ramp up social media presence on your organization's channels (Facebook, Instagram, Twitter and/or LinkedIn).
 - ❖ Tip: Post at least once per week; encourage staff, leadership, and other supporters to promote via their own social media.
- Start promoting day-of event.
 - ❖ Tip: Create a Facebook event page, include 'save the date' in regular e-blasts and let the Catholic Community Foundation know about it.
- Engage your alumni, board members, volunteers, and others to set-up peer-to-peer fundraising.
 - ❖ Tip: See templates & resources
<https://www.igivecatholic.org/info/p2p-email-templates>
<https://www.igivecatholic.org/info/building-board-support>

COMMUNICATIONS TIMELINE:

NOVEMBER

- Launch any paid social media advertising.
 - ❖ Tip: Consider setting up business manager to use Facebook ads, not just boosted posts.
- Post video and blog articles that share stories of impact.
 - ❖ Tip: Provide link to your #iGiveCatholic page.
- Check in with your peer-to-peer fundraisers on their plans and progress.
 - ❖ Tip: Provide a system for ongoing accountability. Don't forget about early giving!
- Attend New Orleans kick-off event! (stay tuned for details).

SOCIAL MEDIA:

PAY TO PLAY

- With organic reach on social media platforms steadily declining, advertising on social media is a necessity for an organization to have an effective social media presence.
- Social media ad campaigns can be a cost-efficient way to advertise online compared to traditional media, with powerful targeting options & robust analytics to measure results.
- Facebook (and Instagram, owned by the same entity) has ad tools that allow the user to choose target audiences by location, demographics, interests and other psychographic criteria.
- Ad campaigns can be set by various objectives: 1) awareness, 2) consideration and/or 3) conversion.
 - ❖ NOTE: A Socialbakers study found that more than 77% of a pages' reach is achieved with Promoted Posts.

EMAIL & SNAIL MAIL BEST PRACTICES & TEMPLATES

#iGIVECATHOLIC

EMAIL & SNAIL MAIL BEST PRACTICES:

- A personalized email/letter focused on #GiveCatholic can be a great way to reach a large amount of people in a short amount of time. The benefit to email is you can embed links that take your recipient directly to your event page, social media channels and profile page page.
- Many of your supporters will be receiving emails/letters, seeing social media posts, and getting calls from multiple other groups, all asking for support. While it's important to get the word out about #GiveCatholic, you don't want to inundate your database with too many e-communications.
- Carefully plan the frequency of your emails to keep your recipients engaged without tiring them of the message. Keep the messaging fresh by including new images, a piece of news or a story in each email, along with important information.

EMAIL & SNAIL MAIL BEST PRACTICES:

- Add an #iGiveCatholic logo to your email signature and make it a clickable link to your organization's profile page.
- Send an email from your personal email account to your friends letting them know about the giving day and asking them to forward the information to 10 of their friends.
- Segment your different types of email recipients and tailor unique messages to each one.
- Create email templates for your board members, internal staff and volunteers to customize and share with their personal networks.
 - ❖ NOTE: Remember the following are templates that should be customized. While we encourage you to utilize the resources and sample language provided, we also want you to think about how your communication can really stand out!

#iGIVECATHOLIC

EVENTS & OUTREACH:

IMPORTANT NOTES

- Hosting an event on #iGiveCatholic is a great way to cut through the digital clutter and provide a human touch so that your organization stays top of mind.
- Be creative but also make sure your event ties back to your mission and you provide a clear call-to-action and/or special announcements while onsite.
- Consider the best timing for your event (breakfast briefing, afternoon meet & greet, evening happy hour, day-long volunteer opportunities, open house and/or donation station).
- Once your event is confirmed, let the Catholic Community Foundation know about it! We will circulate a link for organizations to fill out in early October.
- If your event has a visual aspect/entertainment value, we will make sure the local media know about it (i.e. performance by a band/choir, tour of facilities, live leaderboard, etc.)
- This year, the Catholic Community Foundation will award a prize for most creative event! Stay tuned for criteria.

RECAP:

- Develop a communications timeline that works best for your own organization, based on previous outreach and keeping all communications tactics in mind (a layered approach).
- Develop a social media strategy and create a content calendar to maintain consistent and engaging content before, during and after #iGiveCatholic.
- Customize email templates – personalize materials for your own community, in your own voice.
- Consider hosting an event on or before #iGiveCatholic to increase your reach.
- Visit www.igivecatholic.org/info/resources for additional resources.
