

Library and Crafts

Church Library

Our library is open during business hours and before and after Church services, for browsing, reading or quiet time. Check out the new books and magazines available. The Artist of the Quarter works are also featured within the Library walls. Come by and check out the display. Contact is Kathie Deviny at kathiedeviny@outlook.com

Crafters

Meets Monday from 10 am to noon. Bring your own project- knitting, embroidery, crochet, jewelry making. If its portable, bring it and join the work group for fun, a good chat and fellowship. Newcomers welcome! Contact is Vickie Focke at 360-943-9703.

July Jumble

The annual rummage sale is held mid-July and features all kinds of treasures. Donations include kitchen wares, household items, books, records, handmade crafts and art. Vendors are welcome to display handmade items, baked goods and candies. If you enjoy a good sale for a good cause, this is it. Proceeds support the music program and outreach. To get involved, donate or vend contact the church office at 360-353-8527 or email Adele Roberts at adele@stjohnsoly.org

Dickens Faire

This annual holiday event is the kickoff to the season at St John| San Juan. This festive affair is Dickens based and features all things Christmas. Hand made items, donated treasures, baked goods, candy and hot coffee. Vendors share their wares including jewelry, quilts and other collectibles. Donated items range from kitchen glassware, dinner ware and lamps to books and festive holiday décor. If you find yourself in the spirit of the season and would like to volunteer or have questions, please contact Vicki Focke at 360- 943-9703 or contact the church office by email at terry@stjohnsoly.org
