

New York State Probation Officers Association, Inc.
(NYSPOA)
Code of Ethics/Conduct

The purpose of this document is to set forth guidelines of acceptable behavior for members of the Executive Board of the NYSPOA.

As a member of the Executive Board of the NYSPOA:

1. I will be dedicated to providing my professional service to the New York State Probation Officers Association.
2. I will uphold the By-Laws of the New York State Probation Officers Association.
3. I will faithfully discharge my duties and obligations to the NYSPOA
4. I will conduct my personal life and professional life with dignity. I will not engage in any activity which may adversely affect the credibility and integrity of the NYSPOA.
5. I will distinguish clearly between my actions as an individual and as a representative of the NYSPOA.
6. I will not represent myself as NYSPOA spokesperson or participate in any activity not authorized by my position without prior appropriate approval.
7. I will comply with all federal, state and local laws, rules and regulations, which may relate to activity on behalf of the NYSPOA.
8. I will conduct myself in a manner that will foster cooperation among members of the NYSPOA.
9. I will conduct myself toward the public in a civil and professional manner.
10. I will promote honesty and integrity.

The rules set forth in this document are not intended to, and cannot detail every action which could potentially violate the NYSPOA Code of Ethics/Conduct.
