

ELECTRIC CHOICE

Legislative efforts to curb electric choice continue to march on with the possibility of action in the lame duck session of the legislature. MANS continues to oppose any efforts that would curb or eliminate an already capped electric choice market. MANS and MCC have been participating in a large customer coalition opposing the various versions of this legislation all of which roll back customer choice.