Sunday of Expulsion

Celebrant: Very Reverend Father Aren Jebejian

Sunrise Service - 9:30 a.m. | Divine Liturgy - 10:00 a.m.

Sacred Lections: Isaiah 33:2-22; Romans 12:1-13:10; Matthew 5:17-48

Lector: Yerchanig (Joy) Callan

Morning Service During Lent

On all Sundays during Great Lent, Morning Service (Matins) will be replaced with The Sunrise Office (Arevakal) at 9:00 am.

We will return to our regular schedule of having Morning Service (Matins) at 9:00 am on Palm Sunday.

Welcome!

We welcome you to the Divine Liturgy (Soorp Badarak) and invite all who are confirmed in the Armenian Church, and also those whose churches are in communion with ours, to receive the Sacrament of Holy Communion. If you are new to our parish and would like information about our many parish groups, please ask any parish council member on duty at the entrance desks. Please also fill out a contact card before you leave. Enter to worship the Lord Jesus, who loves you, and depart with His love in order to serve others.

Plate Collection

Today's collection for the church will be taken during Badarak. Your donations remain an essential part of how we support our parish's mission. You can also make an online plate donation through our website, or by scanning QR code with your smartphone.

Midday Hymn

Sung during the Synaxis (at the bottom of page 12 in the Divine Liturgy book)

Midday Hymn for the Second Sunday of Lent

You established the commandment of the sacred fast.

For the first time in Paradise;

The first-created did not observe it

And by eating of the fruit

They tasted the bitterness of sin and of death.

Therefore, grant us O Lord,

To taste the sweetness of Your Commandments.

The enemy has wounded us in the soul

With all sorts of wounds of sin;

And we in our various sicknesses

Are found to be those who need Your help

O Lover of man,

Who heal our weaknesses.

Therefore, heal us O Christ,

Since You love man.

Glory to the Father and to the Son and to the Holy Spirit;

Now and forever and unto the ages of ages. Amen.

By being born of the Virgin Mary

You appeared as Saviour of men;

And by Your life-giving resurrection

You called us who were dead

To the resurrection of immortality.

Therefore, through the prayer of Your mother,

Save us, O Saviour.

Holy Communion

Holy Communion is not openly administered during Great Lent, should any of the faithful wish to receive Holy Communion at any time during Great Lent, they may do so by making arrangements with the Pastor.

Side Altar Painting Covers

We wish to thank Mr. and Mrs. Charles and Marie Semarjian for donating the purple material for the sewing of the new side altar painting covers.

May God continue to bless the good works of their hands.

Today's Gospel Reading

Matthew 5:17-48

“Think not that I have come to abolish the law and the prophets; I have come not to abolish them but to fulfill them. For truly, I say to you, till heaven and earth pass away, not an iota, not a dot, will pass from the law until all is accomplished. Whoever then relaxes one of the least of these commandments and teaches men so, shall be called least in the kingdom of heaven; but he who does them and teaches them shall be called great in the kingdom of heaven. For I tell you, unless your righteousness exceeds that of the scribes and Pharisees, you will never enter the kingdom of heaven.

“You have heard that it was said to the men of old, ‘You shall not kill; and whoever kills shall be liable to judgment.’ But I say to you that everyone who is angry with his brother shall be liable to judgment; whoever insults his brother shall be liable to the council, and whoever says, ‘You fool!’ shall be liable to hell of fire. So if you are offering your gift at the altar, and there remember that your brother has something against you, leave your gift there before the altar and go; first be reconciled to your brother, and then come and offer your gift. Make friends quickly with your accuser, while you are going with him to court, or your accuser may hand you over to the judge, and the judge to the guard, and you be put in prison; truly, I say to you, you will never get out till you have paid the last penny.

“You have heard that it was said, ‘You shall not commit adultery.’ But I say to you that every one who looks at a woman lustfully has already committed adultery with her in his heart. If your right eye causes you to sin, pluck it out and throw it away; it is better that you lose one of your members than that your whole body be thrown into hell. And if your right hand causes you to sin, cut it off and throw it away; it is better that you lose one of your members than that your whole body go into hell.

“It was also said, ‘Whoever divorces his wife, let him give her a certificate of divorce.’ But I say to you that every one who divorces his wife, except on the ground of unchastity, makes her an adulteress; and whoever marries a divorced woman commits adultery.

“Again you have heard that it was said to the men of old, ‘You shall not swear falsely, but shall perform to the Lord what you have sworn.’ But I say to you, Do not swear at all, either by heaven, for it is the throne of God or by the earth, for it is his footstool, or by Jerusalem, for it is the city of the great King. And do not swear by your head, for you cannot make one hair white or black. Let what you say be simply ‘Yes’ or ‘No’; anything more than this comes from evil.

“You have heard that it was said, ‘An eye for an eye and a tooth for a tooth.’ But I say to you, Do not resist one who is evil. But if any one strikes you on the right cheek, turn to him the other also; and if any one would sue you and take your coat, let him have your cloak as well; and if any one forces you to go one mile, go with him two miles. Give to him who begs from you, and do not refuse him who would borrow from you.

“You have heard that it was said, ‘You shall love your neighbor and hate your enemy.’ But I say to you, Love your enemies and pray for those who persecute you, so that you may be sons of your Father who is in heaven; for he makes his sun rise on the evil and on the good, and sends rain on the just and on the unjust. For if you love those who love you, what reward have you? Do not even the tax collectors do the same? And if you salute only your brethren, what more are you doing than others? Do not even the Gentiles do the same? You, therefore, must be perfect, as your heavenly Father is perfect.”

Annual Parish Assembly is on Sunday, March 1, 2026.

The meeting will begin at 12:30pm. An invitation, agenda, and link to the Annual Report was emailed to all 2025 Church Stewards on record.

If you did not receive an email as a Steward on record, contact the church office to verify your status and the email address we have on file.

The Parish Assembly will be electing officers to conduct the meeting, as well as members of the Parish Council, Auditing Committee, and Nominating Committee. We will also review the activities and reports contained in the 2025 Annual Report.

The meeting is open to all parishioners,
but only Church Stewards will be permitted to vote.

A buffet lunch benefitting the St. John Fuller Center for Housing Armenia will be served before the meeting for $20/person.

Please RSVP by Feb 25 to Jackie ElChemmas
jackieelch@gmail.com or text 248-762-1312.

“The Repatriate Returns”

Wednesday, February 25 at 7pm

In the Vartan Room

Please join Jan Mooradian and Rose Kehetian for an evening reflecting on the lifelong friendship of their late husbands, Tom Mooradian and Mitch Kehetian - friends since childhood whose bond lasted a lifetime, despite opposing political beliefs.

One of only two memoirs in English about the 1947 Armenian Repatriation experience, Tom Mooradian's The Repatriate: Love, Basketball, and the KGB was first published in 2008. In response to the readers' questions about what happened when he was finally allowed to leave the USSR and return to America, Tom wrote a sequel The Repatriate Returns: Home, Family, and the FBI, which was published posthumously in 2025.

Books available for purchase.
