Midday Hymn

Sung during the Synaxis (at the bottom of page 12 in the Divine Liturgy book)

Midday Hymn for Pentecost

The Lord reigneth; He is clothed with majesty.

The Holy Spirit who springs forth perpetually,

Since the beginning, inseparable from the Son,

Today was poured down mightily from heaven

Filling all those in the company of the Apostles,

Let us bless and bow down to him.

The One without beginning and always with the self-existent,

The Holy Spirit, inseparable with the same nature as the Son,

Was preached in fiery, distinct languages today,

Bringing nations to the light by distributing diverse talents/gifts to them.

Let us bless and bow down to him. Inseparable from the Father and the Son,

The equally sovereign Holy Spirit, Who was hovering over the waters,

Today regenerated all nations, By the living water gushing forth from Jerusalem.

Let us bless and bow down to him.

This is a part-time role and Gerry will be managing the preventive maintenance, repairs and or replacements of our building's mechanical equipment and essential systems. He will also oversee daily operation, cleanliness, and readiness of all church buildings and grounds.

Today's Gospel Reading

John 14:25-31

These things I have spoken to you, while I am still with you. But the Counselor, the Holy Spirit, whom the Father will send in my name, he will teach you all things, and bring to your remembrance all that I have said to you. Peace I leave with you; my peace I give to you; not as the world gives do I give to you. Let not your hearts be troubled, neither let them be afraid. You heard me say to you, 'I go away, and I will come to you.' If you loved me, you would have rejoiced, because I go to the Father; for the Father is greater than I. And now I have told you before it takes place, so that when it does take place, you may believe. I will no longer talk much with you, for the ruler of this world is coming. He has no power over me; but I do as the Father has commanded me, so that the world may know that I love the Father. Rise, let us go hence.

Fallen Asleep in the Lord

We offer our prayers for the servant of God, George Derderian Jr., who entered his eternal rest last week. His funeral was held at St. John Armenian Church on May 18, 2026.
May Christ our Lord shed His eternal light upon his soul.

We offer our prayers for the servant of God, Mary "Rosie" Kaloustian-Smith, who entered her eternal rest last week. Her funeral was held at St. John Armenian Church on May 20, 2026.
May Christ our Lord shed His eternal light upon her soul.

Feast of Pentecost (Hokekaloosd)

Today, the Armenian Church celebrates the Feast of Pentecost. We mark the day that the Holy Spirit descended upon the Holy Apostles in the Upper Room fifty days (penta = five) after Christ's triumphant resurrection. Scripture tells us that while the Apostles were in the Upper Room, there was a mighty wind and that the Holy Spirit came down upon them in the form of fiery tongues.

During today's Divine Liturgy, we pause three times to read the Prayer of St. John Chrysostom dedicated to the three persons of the Holy Trinity. These prayers are read immediately prior to the singing of the three hymns dedicated to the Father, Son and Holy Spirit (Hayr Yergnavor, Vorti Asdoodzoh, and Hoki Asdoodzoh). These beautiful prayers emphasize our deep, intimate, and spiritual relationship with each person of the Trinity.

Prayer for Vocations

O Divine and Heavenly Grace, our Lord Jesus Christ, who always provides for the needs of Your people and Your Holy Church. In Your love and mercy call our young people to the priesthood and to the service of the Holy Church.

Help them to discern and listen to Your call to serve the Church with gladness. So that strengthened in faith we may thankfully glorify you, together with the Father and the Holy Spirit. Now and always and unto the ages of ages. Amen.
