Greetings Friends of the Hispanic Heritage Council of Western New York Inc.,

I hope all is well with you and your family during this unprecedented time.

El Día del Niño / Day of the Child is an annual tradition celebrated in Mexico and other Latin American countries on April 30th that has become more popular in the United States in recent years.

Here in WNY the Hispanic Heritage Council has proudly collaborated for the past several years with community partners celebration El Día del Niño as an opportunity to honor our children, every year we reach out to members of our community to read a favorite storybook to the children of the Buffalo Public School and community.

With the COVID-19 pandemic keeping students and teachers at home, we would like to reach out to you to see if you are willing to participate and produce a short video by reading a favorite story book that is appropriate for children 12 years of age and under.

When recording your video, please include this introduction:

"In celebration of El Día del Niño/Day of the Child in WNY, I _____ would like to read the following book, the Title is _____ by author _____ and I hope you enjoy it!"

If this is something you may be interested in participating, please record it as soon as possible. We are collecting all videos through April 25th; we will share them thru our social media, web page and YouTube for teachers and parents to use.

Forward all videos as well any questions to: Maritza@hispanicheritagewny.org Dropbox, YouTube, and Google Drive are the best way to send, depending on the length of the video.

Thank you for your time as we all set aside this day to celebrate the importance of our children in promoting the importance of literacy, nutrition/health, and character.

Sincerely,

Maritza Vega
Vice President
Hispanic Heritage Council of Western New York, Inc.
