

BUFFALO OPEN SEDER

2019

A goal of the JCRC is to foster meaningful and collaborative relationships with other faith, ethnic and cultural communities. Sharing a Seder with the themes of freedom, resilience and generational storytelling is a wonderful way to build friendships.

WHAT
WHEN
WHO

Members of the Buffalo Jewish community are invited to welcome 2-4 guests of other faiths/communities to their Passover Seder table. Invite someone you know or we can pair you with many of our community friends.

Passover Seders are Friday, April 19 & Saturday, April 20. [Note- Good Friday is also on Friday, April 19]

Your home! Hosts are invited to the "Planning an Awesome Seder" session with Rabbi Aaron Goldscheider on Tuesday, April 2, 7 - 8:30 PM, part of Amiel BaKehila educators from Israel.

Members of the Buffalo Jewish community and friends of other faiths/communities.

For more information and to sign up as a host household, email mara@buffalojewishfederation.org
Please let us know by April 1 so we have enough time to connect interested families.
