Easter Acclamation

Presider Alleluia! Christ is risen.

People The Lord is risen indeed. Alleluia!

Presider Christ has entered, not into a sanctuary made with hands, a copy of the true one, but into heaven itself, now to appear in the presence of God on our behalf.

Hebrews 9:24

The Invitatory and Psalter

The people standing, the Presider says

Lord, open our lips.

People And our mouth shall proclaim your praise.

Glory to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit:

as it was in the beginning, is now, and will be for ever. Amen. Alleluia.

Jubilate Deo Psalm 100

Setting: John Ireland (1879–1962)

O be joyful in the Lord, all ye lands; *
serve the Lord with gladness
and come before his presence with a song.

Be ye sure that the Lord he is God;
it is he that hath made us and not we ourselves; *
we are his people and the sheep of his pasture.

O go your way into his gates with thanksgiving and into his courts with praise; *
be thankful unto him and speak good of his Name.

For the Lord is gracious;
his mercy is everlasting; *
and his truth endureth from generation to generation.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Ghost: *
as it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be, world without end, Amen.

- 1 Let God arise, and let his enemies be scattered; *
let those who hate him flee before him.
- 2 Let them vanish like smoke when the wind drives it away; *
as the wax melts at the fire, so let the wicked perish at the presence of God.
- 3 But let the righteous be glad and rejoice before God; *
let them also be merry and joyful.
- 4 Sing to God, sing praises to his Name;
exalt him who rides upon the heavens; *
YAHWEH is his Name, rejoice before him!
- 5 Father of orphans, defender of widows, *
God in his holy habitation!
- 6 God gives the solitary a home and brings forth prisoners into freedom; *
but the rebels shall live in dry places.
- 7 O God, when you went forth before your people, *
when you marched through the wilderness,
- 8 The earth shook, and the skies poured down rain,
at the presence of God, the God of Sinai, *
at the presence of God, the God of Israel.
- 9 You sent a gracious rain, O God, upon your inheritance; *
you refreshed the land when it was weary.
- 10 Your people found their home in it; *
in your goodness, O God, you have made provision for the poor.
- 33 Sing to God, O kingdoms of the earth; *
sing praises to the Lord.
- 34 He rides in the heavens, the ancient heavens; *
he sends forth his voice, his mighty voice.
- 35 Ascribe power to God; *
his majesty is over Israel;
his strength is in the skies.

36 How wonderful is God in his holy places! *
the God of Israel giving strength and power to his people!
Blessed be God!
Glory to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit: *
as it was in the beginning, is now, and will be for ever. Amen.

The First Lesson

Acts 1:6-14

When the apostles had come together, they asked Jesus, “Lord, is this the time when you will restore the kingdom to Israel?” He replied, “It is not for you to know the times or periods that the Father has set by his own authority. But you will receive power when the Holy Spirit has come upon you; and you will be my witnesses in Jerusalem, in all Judea and Samaria, and to the ends of the earth.” When he had said this, as they were watching, he was lifted up, and a cloud took him out of their sight. While he was going and they were gazing up toward heaven, suddenly two men in white robes stood by them. They said, “Men of Galilee, why do you stand looking up toward heaven? This Jesus, who has been taken up from you into heaven, will come in the same way as you saw him go into heaven.”

Then they returned to Jerusalem from the mount called Olivet, which is near Jerusalem, a sabbath day’s journey away. When they had entered the city, they went to the room upstairs where they were staying, Peter, and John, and James, and Andrew, Philip and Thomas, Bartholomew and Matthew, James son of Alphaeus, and Simon the Zealot, and Judas son of James. All these were constantly devoting themselves to prayer, together with certain women, including Mary the mother of Jesus, as well as his brothers.

Canticle 9 The First Song of Isaiah

Ecce, Deus

Surely, it is God who saves me; *
I will trust in him and not be afraid.
For the Lord is my stronghold and my sure defense, *
and he will be my Savior.
Therefore you shall draw water with rejoicing *
from the springs of salvation.

And on that day you shall say, *
 Give thanks to the Lord and call upon his Name;
 Make his deeds known among the peoples; *
 see that they remember that his Name is exalted.
 Sing the praises of the Lord, for he has done great things, *
 and this is known in all the world.
 Cry aloud, inhabitants of Zion, ring out your joy, *
 for the great one in the midst of you is the Holy One of Israel.
 Glory to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit: *
 as it was in the beginning, is now, and will be for ever. Amen.

The Second Lesson

1 Peter 4:12-14; 5:6-11

Beloved, do not be surprised at the fiery ordeal that is taking place among you to test you, as though something strange were happening to you. But rejoice insofar as you are sharing Christ's sufferings, so that you may also be glad and shout for joy when his glory is revealed. If you are reviled for the name of Christ, you are blessed, because the spirit of glory, which is the Spirit of God, is resting on you.

Humble yourselves therefore under the mighty hand of God, so that he may exalt you in due time. Cast all your anxiety on him, because he cares for you. Discipline yourselves, keep alert. Like a roaring lion your adversary the devil prowls around, looking for someone to devour. Resist him, steadfast in your faith, for you know that your brothers and sisters in all the world are undergoing the same kinds of suffering. And after you have suffered for a little while, the God of all grace, who has called you to his eternal glory in Christ, will himself restore, support, strengthen, and establish you. To him be the power forever and ever. Amen.

Reader Here ends the reading.

Jesus looked up to heaven and said, “Father, the hour has come; glorify your Son so that the Son may glorify you, since you have given him authority over all people, to give eternal life to all whom you have given him. And this is eternal life, that they may know you, the only true God, and Jesus Christ whom you have sent. I glorified you on earth by finishing the work that you gave me to do. So now, Father, glorify me in your own presence with the glory that I had in your presence before the world existed.

“I have made your name known to those whom you gave me from the world. They were yours, and you gave them to me, and they have kept your word. Now they know that everything you have given me is from you; for the words that you gave to me I have given to them, and they have received them and know in truth that I came from you; and they have believed that you sent me. I am asking on their behalf; I am not asking on behalf of the world, but on behalf of those whom you gave me, because they are yours. All mine are yours, and yours are mine; and I have been glorified in them. And now I am no longer in the world, but they are in the world, and I am coming to you. Holy Father, protect them in your name that you have given me, so that they may be one, as we are one.”

The Sermon

The Rev. Christopher Exley

The Apostles Creed

I believe in God, the Father almighty, creator of heaven and earth;

I believe in Jesus Christ, his only Son, our Lord.
He was conceived by the power of the Holy Spirit and born of the Virgin Mary.

He suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, died, and was buried.

He descended to the dead.

On the third day he rose again.

He ascended into heaven,
and is seated at the right hand of the Father.

He will come again to judge the living and the dead.

I believe in the Holy Spirit,
the holy catholic Church,
the communion of saints,
the forgiveness of sins
the resurrection of the body,
and the life everlasting. Amen.

The Lord's Prayer

Presider The Lord be with you.
People And also with you.
Presider Let us pray.
People Our Father, who art in heaven,
 hallowed be thy Name,
 thy kingdom come,
 thy will be done,
 on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread.
And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those
 who trespass against us.
And lead us not into temptation,
 but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom,
 and the power, and the glory,
 for ever and ever. Amen.

The Suffrages

Presider Show us your mercy, O Lord;
People And grant us your salvation.

 Clothe your ministers with righteousness;
People Let your people sing with joy.

 Give peace, O Lord, in all the world;
People For only in you can we live in safety.

Lord, keep this nation under your care;
And guide us in the way of justice and truth.

People
Let your way be known upon earth;
Your saving health among all nations.

People
Let not the needy, O Lord, be forgotten;
Nor the hope of the poor be taken away.

People
Create in us clean hearts, O God;
And sustain us with your Holy Spirit.

The Collect of the Day

O God, the King of glory, you have exalted your only Son Jesus Christ with great triumph to your kingdom in heaven: Do not leave us comfortless, but send us your Holy Spirit to strengthen us, and exalt us to that place where our Savior Christ has gone before; who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, in glory everlasting. Amen.

Thanksgiving for Heroic Service

O Judge of the nations, we remember before you with grateful hearts the men and women of our country who in the day of decision ventured much for the liberties we now enjoy. Grant that we may not rest until all the people of this land share the benefits of true freedom and gladly accept its disciplines. This we ask in the Name of Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

The Presider continues

Almighty and everlasting God, by whose Spirit the whole body of your faithful people is governed and sanctified: Receive our supplications and prayers which we offer before you for all members of your holy Church, that in their vocation and ministry they may truly and devoutly serve you; through our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ. Amen.

The Anthem Come down, O Love divine

William H. Harris (1883–1973)

Come down, O Love divine, Seek thou this soul of mine,
And visit it with thine own ardour glowing;
O Comforter draw near, within my soul appear,
and kindle it, thy holy flame bestowing.

O let it freely burn, till earthly passions turn
To dust and ashes in its heat consuming;
And let thy glorious light shine ever on my sight,
And clothe me round, the while my path illumining.

Let holy charity mine outward vesture be,
And lowliness become mine inner clothing:
True lowliness of heart, which takes the humbler part,
And o'er its own shortcomings weeps with loathing.

And so the yearning strong, with which the soul will long,
Shall far outpass the pow'r of human telling;
For none can guess its grace, till he become the place
Wherein the Holy Spirit makes his dwelling. Amen.

A Litany of Joy and Thanksgiving for Eastertide

The knowledge of God's unceasing love inspires us, the people of St. Peter's Church in the Great Valley, to share the joys and thanksgivings of our lives. Embracing the good news of Eastertide we offer our prayers.

For the beauty of the Earth, the warming sun and the still cool breezes. For seeing families outdoors together enjoying seasonable weather and flowers which are reminders of abundant life.

For the health of loved ones, family, friends, co-workers and pets. We give thanks and are joyful that our sweet, irrepressible children and grandchildren are safe during this stressful period of isolation and that our families are resilient.

For the shelter of our homes, which have become not only places to live and share meals, but also our workplaces and classrooms. For all things comedic in our lives and homes, on the web and on the airwaves.

For the dedication and proficiency of caregivers who minister to all who are sick and suffering. For not only doctors and nurses, but the laboratory professionals, respiratory therapists, environmental services workers, kitchen staff, security officers and all others who are keeping our hospitals open and safe.

For the steadfastness of all essential workers who are continuing to keep us safe, warm, fed, and in touch at this challenging time. For those who are heeding the call to shelter at home for the benefit of the whole community.

From afar, but near in Christ, we give thanks for our church family. For people who continue to love, to serve, and to stay connected. For a circle of believers who understand that we can worship at home to keep one another safe. For the time when we will be able to worship together again. For those who are joining us in virtual worship from afar.

For the faithful leadership of our clergy Abigail and Chris. For their hard work and ingenuity as they minister to their flock, and for the creative and caring service of our staff and parishioners. For the leadership of our diocese, especially Bishop Gutiérrez's dedication to his role as shepherd and his loving care for all the parishes of the diocese of Pennsylvania.

Above all, we give you thanks for the great mercies and promises given to us in Christ Jesus our risen Lord; To him be praise and glory, with you, O Father, and the Holy Spirit, now and for ever. Amen.

Intercessions

We invite you to pray for any concerns or thanksgivings either aloud, via Facebook comment, or in the silence of your hearts.

We pray especially for Morgan Kreek, Russell W. Wilson, Robert Cunningham, and Charles Cunningham, for whom our altar memorials are given. And Paul Exley and Dick Odgers who died this past week.

A Prayer of St. Chrysostom

Almighty God, you have given us grace at this time with one accord to make our common supplication to you; and you have promised through your well-beloved Son that when two or three are gathered together in his Name you will be in the midst of them: Fulfill now, O Lord, our desires and petitions as may be best for us; granting us in this world knowledge of your truth, and in the age to come life everlasting. Amen

ST. PETER'S ANNOUNCEMENTS

WHILE WE ARE APART please check our website stpetersgv.org for updates and resources during the pandemic.

PENTECOST While the world has changed, and our service offerings have evolved through the pandemic, the church calendar continues. The great 50 days of the Easter season will conclude with the celebration of the gift of the Holy Spirit on Pentecost. There are many symbols for the Holy Spirit, and two of them are the color red, and the dove. Using these two symbols, we want to include as many people as we can in our Pentecost Celebration. First, send us pictures or videos of you wearing red. Pentecost is also the day we traditionally celebrate the birthday of the Church. So, these pictures or videos could also include cake, singing happy birthday, holding birthday signs, etc. We will include them in our videos for Pentecost Sunday. Secondly, St. Peter's has a festive dove which extends on a large pole. We would love to have pictures or video of you waving the dove (maybe wearing red, too). We will also collect these videos and share them during our Pentecost service on May 31. Please contact Chris at chris@stpetersgv.org to have the dove brought to you, all while maintaining proper physical distancing.

SHOPPING ASSISTANCE AVAILABLE Several parishioners have volunteered to shop for groceries, stop at a drugstore, or run similar errands for someone in need of such service. This is one way we can be a community that cares for others. If this would be helpful to you, please contact Holly Hardester. She is listed in the parish directory or you may call the parish office at 610-644-2261 for her contact information.

VISITING SAFELY We cannot sit with you in your home, but Abigail and Chris are happy to stop by your house for a visit in your driveway or yard. You can stay at a safe distance, but enjoy a bit of face to face company. We promise no unannounced visits, but we are eager to see you —so, please contact Abigail at abigail@stpetersgv.org if you or someone you know would welcome one.

ST. PETER'S DIRECTORY is now available. If you would like to receive our May 2020 directory please contact Elizabeth at elizabeth@stpetersgv.org or call the church office at 610-644-2261 and she would be happy to send one to you.

NEEDLEWORK MINISTRY Please join us Saturday, June 6 at 10:00 a.m. via Zoom. For Zoom meeting information, please contact Brenda Grove. She is listed in the parish directory or you may call the parish office at 610-644-2261 for her contact information.

FOOD MINISTRY We are happy to announce that Church Housing is well stocked with food for all its residents. We will now provide food to Alianzas, a non-profit serving the Latino/Hispanic community in Phoenixville, Donations of non-perishable food, especially rice and beans are welcome. Bins will be on the Parish House porch as usual for food donations. We continue to need delivery volunteers. Please contact Helen Ockenden if you wish to volunteer or have questions. She is listed in the parish directory or you may phone the parish office at 610-644-2261 for her information. Thank you!

MORNING PRAYER AND BIBLE STUDY will continue to take place on Wednesday mornings via Zoom. If you would like to participate, please contact Chris at chris@stpetersgv.org for the necessary details.

NOONDAY PRAYER Will be on recess Monday in observance of the Memorial Day holiday but please join us on Tuesday, Wednesday, and Thursday. To help keep us grounded in this time, Abigail and Chris have added daily Noonday prayer to our offerings. This will be available on Facebook live at 12:00 p.m. Monday–Thursday. Please join us virtually as you are able. Also, if you wish to spend time in either the historic church or bank barn for private prayer, please contact Abigail at abigail@stpetersgv.org or her cell at 410-829-4180 to make arrangements.

VIRTUAL BYOB HOUR Join Abigail and Mark for an hour convivial conversation via Zoom on Wednesdays at 6:00 p.m. Even though we cannot get together physically, that does not mean we cannot be together socially. Information will be sent out via Keynotes by Wednesday morning or you may email Abigail at abigail@stpetersgv.org for more information. This is a great opportunity to visit with him, ask questions, and hear from him, in a relaxed way.

PLEASE SEND YOUR PICTURES/VIDEOS As we have become better at moving our worship experience online, we are seeking to include more members of our parish. One of the things that we miss is seeing you and hearing your voices. We usually 'go live' about 15 minutes before the service starts. During this time, we have been just showing a title page that says that the service will begin at 10am. We would like to augment that with pictures and/or videos of our parish family. Please consider sending some digital pictures or a very short (15-30 second) video to Chris at chris@stpetersgv.org. We will include them in the gathering time video played before worship begins. We need to receive anything you send no later than Thursday for inclusion on Sunday.

ST. PETER'S BEDTIME STORIES Abigail and Chris, and many others have pulled some of their favorite books from the archives and found new books which they haven't seen before and have created some short videos (about 5 minutes long) of them reading to you and your children. We hope that you will join them on the St. Peter's Facebook page each night at 7:00 p.m. If you are interested in reading your favorite book and making a video of this to share on our Facebook page, please contact Chris at chris@stpetersgv.org.

THE GATHERING OF MEN IS BACK Please join Cliff Castle every Friday at 8:00 a.m. via Zoom. All men in the parish are invited to this virtual morning gathering. If you would like to join this group, please contact Cliff to receive the zoom link. Cliff is listed in the parish directory or you may contact the parish office at 610-644-2261 for his information.

SUNDAY SCHOOL While we are apart, each week we are sending the parents of the Sunday school children emails with attached pictures, puzzles, coloring pages and games related to the scripture lessons for the coming Sunday. Families not already receiving these Sunday school emails are welcome to join us by emailing SundaySchool@stpetersgv.org.

TECHNOLOGY HELP Since we have moved all church programming into the virtual space, you may be struggling with how to connect to some of the events we are having. Help is available anytime, to handle your technology and connection issues and questions. We want to help you, in any way possible, to participate in our events and worship. Please reach out to Chris at chris@stpetersgv.org.

DAILY DEVOTIONS BOOKLETS are available through the church office. While we are apart, if you would like to receive a Day by Day Daily Devotions for Disciples booklet please contact Elizabeth at elizabeth@stpetersgv.org or call the church office at 610-644-2261 and she would be happy to send one to you.

PRAAYER LISTS Because our leaflets are now on a public platform each week, they do not include the parish prayer list, however we are happy to share it with you at your request. Please contact Elizabeth at elizabeth@stpetersgv.org or call the church office at 610-644-2261 and she will be happy to send one to you. Thank you.
