OWN A CUSTOM, LARGE-SCALE MURAL

MEET THE ARTIST

Ramiro Davaro-Comas is an Argentine/American artist, muralist and art educator. His passions for painting, storytelling, and community work have pushed him to travel throughout his career, collaborating with galleries and artists around the world. He splits his time between his studio practice and his public art work. Davaro-Comas is currently Co-directing Super-Stories, an organization that focuses on arts education and large scale mural projects.

“Community members are part of every step in the creation of the mural. I collect drawings, iconography, words, lists and images that the community would like to see on their wall.”
