DATE/TIME OF REPORT: October 9, 2019, 10:00 A.M.

- According to PG&E, power shutoffs in San Jose are expected to begin by noon on Wednesday, October 9. Areas projected to be affected have not changed; they are East San Jose along the foothills and Almaden in South San Jose.
- The City of San Jose's Emergency Operations Center is activated and the City is implementing its Power Vulnerability Plan to prepare for and respond to the PG&E Power Shutoff.
- The City of San Jose will continue to provide flash report updates at 10 a.m. and 2 p.m. throughout the duration of the blackout.
- The next Media Briefing will be held outside the City of San Jose Emergency Operations Center located at 855 N. San Pedro at 3 p.m. today.
- To stay up to date with City of San Jose information, sign up for City e-mailing lists and emergency alerts at <http://sanjoseca.gov/index.aspx?NID=218>.
- On social media, follow @CityofSanJose, the County @SCC_OES, and PG&E @PGE4Me on Twitter, Facebook and Nextdoor or visit www.sanjoseca.gov and www.pge.com/psps.

General Tips

- Residents and businesses should prepare for up to 7 days without power. For tips on how to prepare, visit www.sanjoseca.gov/index.aspx?NID=6380 or www.pge.com/psps.
- During the PG&E Power Shutoff, avoid leaving your home unless necessary.
- To conserve water at this time, residents and businesses are asked to halt outdoor irrigation.
- PG&E workers are conducting direct outreach to residents in the community. Residents are asked to let the workers do their jobs to contact vulnerable residents and ensure public safety.

Community Resources

- The City of San Jose's Resource Centers are open today until 8 p.m. Residents will have access to information, charging stations for phones and plug-in medical devices, water, and light snacks. Spanish and Vietnamese interpretation will be available. Sheltering and medical care will not be provided.
 - Camden Community Center, 3369 Union Ave

- Mayfair Community Center, 2039 Kammerer Ave
- Southside Community Center, 5585 Cottle Rd
- For medical emergencies, residents should contact 911. For non-emergency issues, contact 311.
- PG&E also has opened a Community Resource Center at Avaya Stadium (1145 Coleman Ave) today at 8:00 a.m. Their Community Resource Center will be open from 8:00 a.m. to 6:00 p.m. for the duration of the event. Residents will have access to information, water, charging stations for phones and medical devices, and air conditioning. Sheltering and medical care will not be provided.
