Background:	In partnership with the AARP, the City of San José Department of Parks, Recreation and Neighborhood Services invites adults ages 50 and up to register for free tax assistance at their local community center by contacting the center directly. Since 1968, the AARP Tax-Aide Program has helped nearly 50 million low-to moderate-income taxpayers over the age of 50. San José community centers offer accessible resources to improve the quality of life of our residents. Additionally, general tax assistance for all ages is available on select days at Mayfair and Roosevelt community centers and Seven Trees Library. Residents should contact the center for more information and to schedule an appointment. As a World Health Organization recognized Age-Friendly City, San José offers accessible resources to improve the quality of life of our residents. Through these programs, PRNS is establishing a dynamic community that supports healthy and vibrant lives for all. For more information about classes and services PRNS provides for older adults, visit http://sanjoseca.gov/prns.

About Parks, Recreation and Neighborhood Services

The City of San José Department of Parks, Recreation and Neighborhood Services (PRNS) has one of the most diverse service models of any agency of its type. The recreation, social services and outdoor spaces serve not only San José's million plus residents, but individuals from surrounding cities and communities, as well. They remain committed to building healthy communities through people, parks and programs and to be a national leader in cultivating healthy communities through quality programs and dynamic public spaces.
