ICC TO HOLD 14th ANNUAL LGBTQ FILM FESTIVAL AT IUP

INDIANA, Pa. --- The Indiana Cares Campaign to End Homophobia will hold the 14th Annual LGBTQ Film Festival at Indiana University of Pennsylvania. The festival will be held Sunday evenings throughout October.

The festival begins Oct. 1, closing with a double feature on Oct. 29. Selected short films will be shown before the feature films, with pizza being served between the double feature films on Oct. 29.

All films begin at 6 p.m. in Beard Auditorium, Stouffer Hall. There is no admission charge; donations are accepted. Parking on campus is free after 5 p.m. (except in reserved spaces).

The following films will be featured during the festival:

- Oct. 1: "Signature Move," the story of Zaynab, a Muslim lesbian who lives in Chicago. While taking care of her mother, she falls in love with a bold Mexican woman.
- Oct. 8: "Handsome Devil," a coming-of-age drama that tells the story of a boarding school loner and a star athlete. This film is being shown during National "Coming Out" Week.
- Oct. 15: "This is Everything," a documentary that follows the struggles of a champion diver who announces he is transitioning from male to female, featuring YouTube personality Gigi Gorgeous.
- Oct. 22: "Million Happy Nows," a drama that follows an aging soap opera star, her early onset of Alzheimer's and her relationship with her partner.
- Oct. 29: "Sebastian," a film about the weeklong romance of Alex and Sebastian.
- Oct. 29: "Quest," which follows a family from North Philadelphia for more than a decade, featuring Christopher "Quest" Rainey and his wife Christine, who host a music studio in their home.

The Indiana LBGTQ Film Festival is sponsored by PFLAG (Parents, Families and Friends of Lesbians and Gays) of Indiana, Indiana Cares Campaign and the support of individual donors. Co-sponsors are: IUP Pride Alliance, LGBTQ Commission, The Lively Arts at IUP, Women's and Gender Studies, The Honors College, the College of Humanities and Social Sciences, the College of Health and Human Services, and the departments of anthropology; English; history and sociology.

For additional information about the LGBTQ Film Festival and other ICC events, contact ICC at indianacarescampaign@yahoo.com or go to www.indianacares.wordpress.com.

-30-