

Reggie Biancalani: Elementary Principal Hero Highlights Overflow

Reggie: We would like to nominate Reggie Biancalani as our Hero of the Week! She is really a Hero of the Year in the way she leads our elementary team! Reggie comes in each day and commits 110% to supporting her staff. She goes beyond the day to day demands to create an exceptional school environment. She is our biggest cheerleader and valued advisor. Above all, Reggie seeks God in all that she does and it is evident that she lives out her faith. It is an honor and a pleasure to work for her and we are beyond blessed for her leadership and her passion for this school. She is most deserving of this award! Love, The TK Team!

Reggie: We are so blessed to work with you. You never expect us to do anything you are not willing to do yourself. With all of the extra work which has surfaced through our phase 1 renovation, you have stepped up to working even harder and longer to make MCS a success. When there are conflicts that occasionally arise, you always ask good questions, offer advice that helps us think and grow, and you leave us with encouragement that helps us continue to fall forward and move ahead. You work hard to plan our meetings and in-services so that all of us will walk away challenged and better prepared to serve our students. When you sense that we are in a slump, you find a reason for a celebration. We feel blessed to have you as our leader. The Kindergarten Team

Reggie: We are so grateful for the way you lead, support, and invest in our elementary team. Thank you for pouring out wisdom and speaking into our strengths.
