

A Real Tweet!

The Birds of Elm Grove

with Jennifer Morris, Elm Grove Bird Enthusiast

Our feathered friends made the first tweets, and Elm Grove is home to lots of good ol' fashioned twitter activity. As part of the Great Backyard Bird Count, the Friends of the Elm Grove Library invite you to learn a bit more about what our wonderful birds are up to this winter with Elm Grove resident and bird enthusiast, Jennifer Morris. Also, make and take a simple, natural birdfeeder.
