

WESTERN STATE LAW REVIEW - SINCE 1972

Dear Legal Community,

The Western State Law Review Board is proud to announce the 2023 Annual Law Review Symposium will be held on April 15, 2023. This year's topic, "The Future of California's Criminal Justice System and the Debate Between Traditional and Progressive Laws," will feature a balanced and informative discussion led by a panel of experts. Speakers include:

- Todd Spitzer (Orange County District Attorney)
- Paul S. Meyer (Paul S. Meyer, APC)
- Deputy Public Defender Joelle Moore (San Bernardino PD)
- Judge Kimberly Menninger (Superior Court of Orange County)
- Judge Kyle Brodie (Superior Court of San Bernardino County)
- Sheriff Don Barnes (Orange County Sheriff)
- Keith Bogardus (Orange County Chief Assistant District Attorney)

As a 501(c)(3) non-profit and student-run organization, Western State Law Review relies on the generosity of its supporters. Sponsorships and donations from alumni and the legal community in support of projects and events are integral to the Law Review's continued success.

As a symposium sponsor, you will receive benefits tailored to your level of sponsorship: Platinum, Gold, and Silver. To learn more about available sponsorships, please visit: westernstatelawreview.com
