

Reno Takes a Stand For Children

On Saturday, June 1, 1996, a group of children and adults gathered at Neil and Peckham, tuned up their kazoos, and paraded the short distance to Pine Middle School. Coinciding with a national event staged in Washington, DC, the local Stand For Children highlighted youth speakers, performers, tee shirt painting, and information booths.