SPOKANE FOLKORE SOCIETY’S FALL FESTIVAL

Come join the Spokane Folklore Society for their 27th annual Fall Folk Festival, as they promote awareness, appreciation, development, and continuation of the varied cultural and ethnic traditions that exist in the Inland Northwest by providing a showcase for sharing these traditions in a spirit of community.

The weekend will be filled with traditional music, dance, crafts, workshops, storytelling, jam sessions, and more. There will be something for everyone including African, Asian, Celtic, Hawaiian, Klezmer, Middle Eastern, Bluegrass, Singer-Songwriters, and participatory dance including two contra dances. Meals and snacks are also available.
