Priest: The Lord be with you.

Response: And also with you

O God, who before the passion of your only begotten Son revealed his glory upon the holy mountain: Grant to us that we, beholding by faith the light of his countenance, may be strengthened to bear our cross, and be changed into his likeness from glory to glory; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

THE WORD OF GOD

The First Lesson Exodus 34:29-35

Moses came down from Mount Sinai. As he came down from the mountain with the two tablets of the covenant in his hand, Moses did not know that the skin of his face shone because he had been talking with God. When Aaron and all the Israelites saw Moses, the skin of his face was shining, and they were afraid to come near him. But Moses called to them; and Aaron and all the leaders of the congregation returned to him, and Moses spoke with them. Afterward all the Israelites came near, and he gave them in commandment all that the LORD had spoken with him on Mount Sinai. When Moses had finished speaking with them, he put a veil on his face; but whenever Moses went in before the LORD to speak with him, he would take the veil off, until he came out; and when he came out, and told the Israelites what he had been commanded, the Israelites would see the face of Moses, that the skin of his face was shining; and Moses would put the veil on his face again, until he went in to speak with him.

The Word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

Psalm 99

Give light to my eyes, O Lord.

S 415 Jerome Webster Meachen
(b. 1930)

© 1956, Jerome Webster Meachen.

- 1 The LORD is King; let the people tremble; *he is enthroned upon the cherubim; let the earth shake.
- 2 The LORD is great in Zion; *he is high above all peoples.
- 3 Let them confess his Name, which is great and awesome; *he is the Holy One.
- 4 "O mighty King, lover of justice, you have established equity; *you have executed justice and righteousness in Jacob."

5 Proclaim the greatness of the LORD our God and fall down before his footstool; *he is the Holy One.

6 Moses and Aaron among his priests, and Samuel among those who call upon his Name, *they called upon the LORD, and he answered them.

7 He spoke to them out of the pillar of cloud; *they kept his testimonies and the decree that he gave them.

8 O LORD our God, you answered them indeed; *you were a God who forgave them yet punished them for their evil deeds.

9 Proclaim the greatness of the LORD our God and worship him upon his holy hill; *for the LORD our God is the Holy One.

The Second Lesson A Reading from the Second Letter of the Corinthians 3:12-4:2

Since, then, we have such a hope, we act with great boldness, not like Moses, who put a veil over his face to keep the people of Israel from gazing at the end of the glory that was being set aside. But their minds were hardened. Indeed, to this very day, when they hear the reading of the old covenant, that same veil is still there, since only in Christ is it set aside. Indeed, to this very day whenever Moses is read, a veil lies over their minds; but when one turns to the Lord, the veil is removed. Now the Lord is the Spirit, and where the Spirit of the Lord is, there is freedom. And all of us, with unveiled faces, seeing the glory of the Lord as though reflected in a mirror, are being transformed into the same image from one degree of glory to another; for this comes from the Lord, the Spirit.

Therefore, since it is by God's mercy that we are engaged in this ministry, we do not lose heart. We have renounced the shameful things that one hides; we refuse to practice cunning or to falsify God's word; but by the open statement of the truth we commend ourselves to the conscience of everyone in the sight of God.

The Word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

Please stand.

Sequence Hymn 129 Christ upon the mountain peak

The Gospel: The Holy Gospel of Our Lord Jesus Christ according to Luke 9:28-36, [37-43a]
All: Glory to You Lord Christ.

About eight days after Peter had acknowledged Jesus as the Christ of God, Jesus took with him Peter and John and James, and went up on the mountain to pray. And while he was praying, the appearance of his face changed, and his clothes became dazzling white. Suddenly they saw two men, Moses and Elijah, talking to him. They appeared in glory and were speaking of his departure, which he was about to accomplish at Jerusalem. Now Peter and his companions were weighed down with sleep; but since they had stayed awake, they saw his glory and the two men who stood with him. Just as they were leaving him, Peter said to Jesus, "Master, it is good for us to be here; let us make three dwellings, one for you, one for Moses, and one for Elijah"--not knowing what he said. While he was saying this, a cloud came and overshadowed them; and they were terrified as they entered the cloud. Then from the cloud came a voice that said, "This is my Son, my Chosen; listen to him!" When the voice had spoken, Jesus was found alone. And they kept silent and in those days told no one any of the things they had seen.

[On the next day, when they had come down from the mountain, a great crowd met him. Just then a man from the crowd shouted, "Teacher, I beg you to look at my son; he is my only child. Suddenly a spirit seizes him, and all at once he shrieks. It convulses him until he foams at the mouth; it mauls him and will scarcely leave him. I begged your disciples to cast it out, but they could not." Jesus answered, "You faithless and perverse generation, how much longer must I be with you and bear with you? Bring your son here." While he was coming, the demon dashed him to the ground in convulsions. But Jesus rebuked the unclean spirit, healed the boy, and gave him back to his father. And all were astounded at the greatness of God.]

The Prayers of the People

In faith, hope and love let us pray for God's people throughout the world, for our Presiding Bishop Michael and for our Bishops Andrew, Allen, and Mary, for this gathering, and for the one, holy, catholic, and apostolic church, saying:

Lord, make us one.

That we worship God in spirit and in truth. For the peace that comes from God alone, for the unity of all peoples, and for the salvation of souls.

Let us pray in the will of Christ:

Lord, make us one.

That we may be freed from our sins against one another, from prejudice and hasty judgment; from ignorance or pride; from isolation and exclusivity; from apathy and complacency.

Let us pray in the forgiveness of Christ:

Lord, make us one.

That the leaders of all nations may seek peace and justice, and that they may give priority to the poor and the homeless, to children, refugees and victims of random violence,

Let us pray in the spirit of Christ:

Lord, make us one.

That the churches may discover again their unity in the one baptism, that we may share joy and wonder at God's works.

Let us pray with the heart of Christ:

Lord, make us one.

That this congregation may discern God's purpose for Grace/ La Gracia with wisdom and courage,

Let us pray in the strength of Christ:

Lord, make us one.

That our homes may be filled with grace during this coming year, and that our families may have confidence and peace in following Christ.

Let us pray in the wisdom of Christ:

Lord, make us one.

That we may care for the earth that God has given us and conserve it wisely.

Let us pray in the peace of Christ:

Lord, make us one.

That all Christians may embrace together Christ's command to care for those in need; the sick, the poor, the hungry, the lonely, the outcast.

Let us pray in the mercy of Christ:

Lord make us one.

Priest: Eternal God, giver of love and peace, you call us to live together as one community; give us grace to learn your ways and to fulfill your purpose, that we may bring justice and peace to all people, in the name of Jesus Christ, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit one God now and forever. Amen

You are invited to join me as I host a four-week study on the final 24 hours of Jesus Christ. Each session will start at 6:45 PM with time for Labyrinth prayer in the parish hall and then transition at 7:15 PM for Bible discussion in the library. Please contact our administrator, Maria Campos, by March 3rd to order books for the parishioners planning to attend.

This video series entitled, "24 Hours that changed the World" was written and produced by a wonderful Methodist pastor, Adam Hamilton. Adam started a new church, Church of the Resurrection, with only four members in 1990. Within 10 years, his church grew to over 15,000 members. As you will find, his educational resources are fantastic.

This educational series encompasses the historical nature behind the last day of Jesus Christ on earth. We will discuss the 'why', the 'what' and the 'where' behind the Biblical stories we reenact each year in Lent leading to Easter Sunday. It's a powerful journey. For example, we will travel to Jerusalem. We will see what Jesus saw and we will walk along the path that Jesus took 2,000 years ago. Come join us for this amazing journey. Fr. Chip

Book Club: After the winter storm forced the Book Club to cancel its Feb 12th meeting, the group's Black History Month selection, The New Jim Crow by Michelle Alexander, has been moved to Tuesday, March 12th, at 7 pm in the church library. ## Heartfelt Thanks from Marie Barrow and Karen Odom

Please accept our world of thanks to all who made this year's Black History Month Celebration meaningful and memorable. We couldn't have done it without you—your participation and support made all the difference! Our thanks to all, particularly Fr. Adolfo whose inspiring sermon launched our month-long celebration.

To our Music Director, Peter Roberts, the Choir, and Fr. Chip for coordinating and delivering such beautiful, timely music. To Victoria Carter and her Ensemble who augmented the music with joyous, dramatic drumming. To Biff Henderson and Bob Sosa, who joined us in delivering Black History-themed powerful passages. To Nathaniel Graves for his thoughtful and thought-provoking words as guest speaker. To our amazing Living Legends who continue to awe and inspire us. To Sylvia and Walter Simon for introducing us to the National Memorial for Peace and Justice and specifically Robert Dottin, PhD, Adine Usher, EdD, Tosia McCormick, MS, and Linda Rousseau, MS, who enriched our Black History Month Celebration and opened our eyes through their insightful presentation. To Dr. John Mitchell for once again sharing his incredible documentary of The Chosen Few and the discussion that followed.

To Fr. Chip who stepped in without hesitation with a stirring sermon when the Hon. Delores Brathwaite was unable to join us. To Michael Heffner who provided ongoing technical support and ensured that the Black History Month services and events were recorded for future viewing. To Taurino Juárez who worked magic continually behind the scenes each Sunday. To Maria Campos for coordinating announcements and ensuring the congregation remained informed throughout the month. To the members of Welcoming Committee who worked tirelessly to present a magnificent spread worthy of a festive finale.

To Maria Lewis, who made sure the Parish Hall also visually reflected the culmination of our month-long celebration and Al Sargent, who provided important reminders of the meaning behind Black History Month.

And, a huge thank you to the Vestry and the entire congregation for your enthusiastic support and participation throughout the entire month, from wearing African garb (you all looked fabulous!) to generously sharing your favorite dishes and refreshments at our potluck finale feast on the final Sunday. And, to those we surely missed in naming specifically, but are very much appreciated nevertheless—you are by no means forgotten. We are deeply grateful to all.

Marie and Karen
