Due to coronavirus (COVID-19) public health concerns, and following the CDC and the State of New York recommendation of social distancing, Downtown

Music is canceling the next four Wednesday afternoon concerts. Concerts are currently scheduled to resume on Wednesday, April 15.

The Weekend Discovery Concert on Sunday, April 26 with Gilda Lyons and Daron Hagen has been postponed until next season.

While we believe the decision to cancel is the correct one to safeguard our community and everyone involved in the performance from any potential exposure, we understand that it is also disappointing. We thank all of our supporters for their patience and understanding as we look forward to performing for you soon.

Please consult our website for future announcements and updates.

April /May Concerts

Wednesdays: 45-minute programs at 12:10 PM; Downtown Music does not set a fee for these Wednesday programs, but we do count on the generosity of our audience to provide $500 each week toward the operating cost of the series. We recommend a contribution of $10 or more to help defray expenses and allow us to continue to bring you high-quality music.

Evenings and Weekends: as indicated.

Wednesday, April 15, 2020 @ 12:10 PM

Tableau Vivant-- Karen Marie Marmer, violin, Immanuel Davis, flute, Arnie Tanimoto, viola da gamba, and Dongsok Shin, harpsichord, perform part three of "Telemann in Paris," which continues the exploration of the remarkable and beautiful "Paris" Quartets by Telemann, with the addition of solo works by Blavet and Forqueray.

This concert is made possible, in part, with the generous support of D'Errico Jewelry, Scarsdale.

Wednesday, April 29, 2020 @ 12:10 PM

Hailed by the New York Times as "an excellent instrumentalist" and "compelling artist", Berlin based cellist Thilo Thomas Krigar has brought his distinctive style to more than 30 countries worldwide. The debut of pianist Babette Hierholzer with the Berlin Philharmonic Orchestra was followed by numerous performances lead by renowned Conductors Sir Colin Davis, Klaus Tennstedt and Semyon Bychkov. She has appeared with the Pittsburgh Symphony, and in recital at Berlin's Philharmonic Hall, the National Gallery of Art in Washington, and Weill Carnegie Hall. Together, they offer a musical voyage to South America. A Downtown Music debut.

This concert is made possible, in part, with the generous support of the Brian Wallach Agency, White Plains, New York. Personal and Commercial Insurance since 1949.

Wednesday, May 6, 2020 @ 12:10 PM

Woody's Children at Grace-- Celebrated radio host Bob Sherman continues to expand our circle as he introduces the Downtown Music audience to Work O' the Weavers. The quartet of singers, David Bernz, who also plays banjo and guitar, Martha Sandefer, Mark Murphy, who also plays bass, and Travis Jeffrey, who also plays banjo, not only recreates songs associated with the Weavers but offers new selections that the Weavers might be singing today. A Downtown Music debut.

This concert is made possible, in part, with the generous support of Nick Wolff and Daniel Luckner, Better Homes and Gardens/Rand Realty, White Plains. We orchestrate total harmony in your real estate transaction.

Wednesday, May 13, 2020 @ 12:10 PM

The musicians of the Westchester Philharmonic return for one of their exciting chamber music concerts. Gregg August, double bass; Jesse Mills, violin; and Manuel

Valera, piano, play Gregg August: Trio for violin, piano, and bass, and Ignacio Cervantes: Los Tres Golpes.

This concert is made possible, in part, with the generous support of the Brian Wallach Agency, White Plains, New York. Personal and Commercial Insurance since 1949.

Wednesday, May 20, 2020 @ 12:10 PM

It Takes Three-- Clarinetist Mark Dover; violist Luke Fleming; and pianist David Fung, collectively known as the Manhattan Chamber Players, play music of Mozart, Schumann, and Bruch, as well as a world premiere by American composer, Mary Bianco. A Downtown Music debut.

This concert is made possible, in part, through the generosity of Joel Breitkopf, Paul Farfel, Nancy Goodman, Helen Demetrios, Lawrence Keiser, and Jean Newton who salute Mary Bianco and the work of the Music Conservatory of Westchester in our community.

Wednesday, May 27, 2020 @ 12:10 PM

Angelica, the women's chamber choir directed by Marie Caruso, has delighted our Downtown Music audience with its holiday programming for many years. This wonderful group offers an annual spring concert as well which, this season, includes the 12th-century "Sumer is icumen in," Landini's "Ecco la primavera," and selections from Carmina Burana plus contemporary works by Basque composer Javier Busto, and a premiere by Michael Minard, "Once I knew a fine song." Joining Angelica is percussionist Rex Benincasa.

This concert is made possible, in part, with the generous support of Elias Dagher.
