THE EPISCOPAL NEW YORKER

THE OFFICIAL NEWS PUBLICATION OF THE EPISCOPAL DIOCESE OF NEW YORK

Spring Episcopal New Yorker Theme: "Death"

Copy Deadline March 15

Please contact the editor before you start to write

The April issue of the Episcopal New Yorker will have "Death" as its theme.

We Invite Your Contributions!

What are we looking for?

Personal experiences, theological reflection, information -- anything that will interest and enlighten our readers, written from a Christian perspective.

Some general suggestions for starting points:

- Pastoral Care of the Dying
- Pastoral Care of the Bereaved
- The gap between what the Church teaches about death and its aftermath and what people expect to hear
- Hospital chaplaincy
- The death of a child

- Funerals – particularly, Episcopal funerals
- Living in the expectation of imminent death
- Burial practices
- Suicide
- Euthanasia
- Murder
- The death penalty
- The death of animals
- Near-death experiences
- Death and violence in entertainment

Our assurance as Christians is that nothing, not even death, shall separate us from the love of God which is in Christ Jesus our Lord.
BCP p 862

So it is with the resurrection of the dead. What is sown is perishable, what is raised is imperishable. It is sown in dishonor, it is raised in glory. It is sown in weakness, it is raised in power. It is sown a physical body, it is raised a spiritual body.
1 Corinthians 15 42-44

Please note: We will read all submissions, but we cannot guarantee publication. To greatly increase the likelihood that what you write will make it into print, please contact the editor, Nicholas Richardson, with a simple outline or description before you start writing, by email at nrichardson@dioceseny.org or by telephone (212.316.7520).
