Owens Corning – Focused on Shareholder Value

Prithvi (Prith) Gandhi | VP Corporate Strategy & Financial Planning | Owens Corning

Prithvi (Prith) Gandhi has served as vice president of corporate strategy, corporate development and financial planning, in addition to interim CFO at Owens Corning, a world leader in insulation, roofing, and fiberglass composites since joining the company in 2013.

Previously, Prith worked for Dover Corporation as vice president of corporate development where he was responsible for M&A, strategy and investments for Dover's Industrial Printing and Fluid Management segments.

Before that, he was vice president of corporate development at Zebra Technologies Corporation for six years. At Zebra, he was responsible for M&A, strategic investments and the development and planning of corporate strategy. Before his experience at Zebra, Gandhi spent 11 years with Morgan Stanley in proprietary trading and technology M&A in New York and Silicon Valley. He was named an Emerging Leader for the Chicago Council on Global Affairs in 2009.

Gandhi earned his bachelor of science in mathematics and economics from the University of California at Berkeley, his master of arts in international economics from Georgetown University, and his MBA in accounting and finance from the Wharton School of Business at the University of Pennsylvania.
