March is Women’s History Month and although women deserve to be celebrated 365 days a year, this month is an excellent time to highlight the contributions of exceptional women throughout the world and history. The theme for this year’s Women’s History Month is “Women Providing Healing, Promoting Hope.” This theme was chosen to pay tribute to frontline workers and caregivers during the pandemic, but also to recognize the ways women of all cultures have provided healing and hope throughout history.

Throughout March, we will be highlighting the historical contributions of women through events, podcasts, educational content, and more.

To help kick off Women’s History Month, you can:

- Learn more about “Why March is National Women’s History Month”
- Check out IDHE’s Diversity calendar for upcoming events and activities aimed at highlighting women’s history all month long.