

LET'S MAKE A DIFFERENCE - THROUGH THE LOVE OF CHRIST – TOGETHER!

Taste & See

By Akira May Owens,
Youth & Family Minister

Let's do a little experiment!

I'm going to pick a random Scripture and as you read it, think about whether you know what it's talking about.

*Do not long for the night,
when peoples vanish in their place.
²¹Take care; do not turn to iniquity,
for this you have chosen rather than affliction.
²²Behold, God is exalted in his power;
who is a teacher like him?
²³Who has prescribed for him his way,
or who can say, 'You have done
wrong?'* Job 36:21-23

Did you get that? Outside of its context, this passage of Scripture may not seem to make sense or have much relevance. But with a little context, and deeper exploration, we find that this chunk of the Word is the worship, wailing, and wrestling of a man embroiled in spiritual warfare and turmoil, even though he didn't understand why God was allowing it.

If the above text was confusing to you at first, don't fret! The Bible can be complex and can feel overwhelming. Sometimes it requires us to stand back and view the whole forest, and other times, we need to zoom in on just a tree to harvest God's message. What's amazing about the Bible is that God spoke through roughly 40 authors to write 66 books, penned over thousands of years to bring us a unified, authoritative message, without error, bearing witness to our only Savior Jesus Christ. In the Bible we find not only salvation and forgiveness, but also God's standards for Christian life and righteousness, His plan for eternity, hope and encouragement in hardship, examples of powerful prayer, ancient people with struggles like yours and mine, and rest in the arms and promises of our Heavenly Father.

Taste & See

Sometimes, this isn't so obvious when we briefly read over passages of Scripture on a Sunday morning. But I just want to offer my personal testimony about how the Word of God is literally changing my life!

God's Word in my life:

- Serves as a mirror, challenging me to see my daily sin in light of truth and leads me to make tough, but holy changes.
- Articulates the heart of God for humanity, though I may not understand everything that He allows.
- Shows His purpose for my life and ministry in light of eternity.
- Helps me hear the Holy Spirit and have a relationship with God because I'm learning His voice and character with the Word as my example.
- Equips me with boldness to face the future, because I know how the story ends for believers in Christ Jesus.

And that's just the tip of the iceberg! There's so much more, and this has conceived such a contagious excitement in me that I want to tell everyone who will listen about my Lord and Savior Jesus Christ and how He offers hope to anyone who is poor in spirit. The fingerprints of God's overall authorship left in the details of Scripture show us that the Bible was crafted in love by a perfect God, giving us the confidence to share its truths with others! Isn't that amazing!

Okay, maybe I'm a Bible nerd and perhaps I like picking God's brain a little more than the average person, but there is an enthusiasm for the Word of God that's growing at St. Paul's and it's happening in our Wednesday Bible Study. This time together in study has allowed us to go deeper into the Word and connect to each other as brothers and sisters in Christ.

Sometimes we discuss tough topics in Bible Study, but the purpose is always accomplished. God's will is articulated and the Holy Spirit does the transforming work in each of our lives. I encourage you, friends, to come and experience how the Lord is moving among us, illuminating His Word in our hearts. Sure, sometimes, God challenges our thinking and our fleshly wants. Together we wrestle, wail, worship, and ultimately surrender to the will of God.

After all, He does tell us to grow in grace and knowledge of our Lord in Peter 3:18, to be transformed by renewing our thinking in Romans 12:2, and to gather together often before He returns for us in Hebrews 10:25. So that's what we're doing in Bible study and we want everyone to be part of that.

You may be thinking – "Bible study is really not my thing," or, "I have my own Bible Study group." But I challenge you to come, taste, and see how our good Lord encounters your spirit.

We'll be digging into 1, 2 & 3 John every Wednesday at 6:30 pm. Call the St. Paul's office to get your study book today!

In zeal and love,

Akira Owens

Mission of the Month

The July Mission of the Month is St. Paul's UCC's Shepherd's Fund.

Please use your July special envelopes to support those in need right here in our church community.

The August Mission of the Month is Bible2School!

This mission of the month supports the "release time" program where children in grades 2-4 are released for 1 hour each week to come to area churches to learn more about Jesus during their lunch period.

Bible2School by the numbers:

- ◆ 838 children participated in Bible2School last year – a 20% increase over 2017-2018!
- ◆ 51% of those children have no church affiliation!
- ◆ 16 Schools served
- ◆ 40 Classes provided.

Please prayerfully consider giving to Bible2School during the month of August – be sure to use your special envelope to make a difference in the lives of kids throughout Lancaster County who say:

"I wish every day was a Thursday so I could come to Bible2School every day!"

Weighed Down

Many people dream of having the "right stuff" to fly to space. Recently, 18,300 people applied for just 12 astronaut spots at NASA! Fanfare over the moon landing's 50th anniversary is sure to spark even more interest.

Leaving behind earthly troubles and floating in zero gravity must be amazing, right? Not, it turns out, for one's body. Weightlessness takes a heavy physical toll in space. Without resistance, muscles waste away and bones weaken. Bodily systems we take for granted are disrupted, causing disorientation. To counteract these effects, astronauts wear resistance suits while exercising. Ironically, after escaping Earth's gravity, they must replace it.

Similarly, we long for trouble-free days and pray for an end to earthly burdens, not recognizing that exertion, whether physical or spiritual, builds strength. "He who knows no hardships will know no hardihood," said Harry Emerson Fosdick. "He who faces no calamity will need no courage. ... The characteristics in human nature which we love best grow in a soil with a strong mixture of troubles."

Every weighty challenge is a reason to "rejoice ... knowing that suffering produces endurance, and endurance produces character, and character produces hope" (Romans 5:3-4, ESV).

Another Way to Give

Did you know that there is another way to give other than through your weekly envelopes?

You can have a withdrawal made directly from your savings or checking account on a weekly, bi-weekly, or monthly basis - whatever schedule works best for you.

The direct withdrawals are a safe and secure way to give – much like having your PPL or UGI bill debited from your account.

You can give regardless of bad weather or being away on vacation and you can specify special giving like missions, benevolence or capital funds too.

If you're interested, please contact Pam Herman at 717.665.2447 or by email at stpaulsmanheim@ptd.net.

Council Highlights

Church Council met on Tuesday, June 18 @ 7 pm. Highlights of the meeting include:

Memorial Gifts & Endowment:

No report this month

Treasurers Report:

Gretchen Miller reported:

- ◆ Overall, we are running a bit behind both the current fund giving from last year as well as the 2019 budget. This could be due to a large one-time gift given in both 2017 and 2018 that didn't happen this year or the lower 2019 auto withdrawals.

Pastor's Report:

- ◆ Wording for The Covenant of Ministry for Pastor Bill Long was tweaked in preparation of the congregational meeting this Sunday.
- ◆ In the fall, Pastor Bill will be starting a book club for those who might be interested. A possible title to read could include The Lion, the Witch and the Wardrobe.

Committee Reports:

- ◆ Property Board – Pam noted that several broken toilet seats have been replaced. Noble Chemical was here to repair the sanitizer in the kitchen sink. Joan addressed parking lot issues – warning signs were distributed to those who have been parking overnight. The plaster in the ceiling above the organ will be repaired either at the end of June or July. Deadbolt locks will be installed in the nursery within the next few weeks for security purposes.

Old Business:

- ◆ Open Council Positions: There are still 2 available council positions. If interested in serving, please contact Joan Hess.

- ◆ Praise Team Leader: Pam noted that the position for a permanent leader is now posted on our website and has been listed with several area Christian colleges.

New Business:

- ◆ A draft to update the Communion Procedure was shared with council members – to be reviewed next month.
- ◆ The mission team will be commissioned in worship on Sunday, July 21.
- ◆ State of the Church meeting: No meeting will be held in July, but there will be a State of The Church meeting on Sunday, September 22 following worship in the Bright Library.

The next council meeting will be held on Tuesday, July 16 @ 7 pm.

Respectfully submitted,
Pam Herman, Recording Secretary

Church Council Minutes/Packets are posted in Fellowship Hall, in the 2nd floor hallway and are also available to you in the church office by request.

As members of that congregation, your input is always welcomed. If there is ever a concern you want addressed, feel free to speak to a member of Council or come to one of our meetings.

Congregational Meeting Update

A Congregational Meeting was held on Sunday, June 23 to vote on the proposal by The Rev. Bill Long to stay at St. Paul's UCC as Designated Term Pastor until at least May 26, 2024.

The vote was unanimous (66 Yes; 0 No) to approve the proposal. Pastor Bill and Cheri will be transferring their membership to St. Paul's UCC. Pastor Bill also challenged the congregation that now he has come out of retirement and accepted this calling, that as members of the Body of Christ, we should all do the same and accept our calling as disciples of Jesus.

Thank you Notes

Thank you to all who helped decorate the church "RED" for Pentecost Sunday! Beautiful!

Joan Hess

To My Friends at St. Paul's UCC,

Thank you for all the cards, prayers and well wishes during my recent shoulder surgery.

Everything was much appreciated.

Ron & Dee Forry

I would like to thank the congregation for your participation in the music in general and in particular during our Mission Moment with Damian Walters and his presentation on his trip to the Dominican Republic.

He felt thoroughly welcomed and appreciates both your financial and the support of your prayers.

I would also like to thank the Praise Team for their hard work on the music and for embracing new and vibrant songs. A special thanks to Gretchen and Erica for their work on media that day. Last but not least to Pastor Bill for giving him the floor for the day, even though it meant not having to prepare a sermon for the day before leaving for vacation (LOL)!

St. Paul's UCC certainly lives the mission of Jesus! It's an honor to serve.

In Him,
Stephen Smith

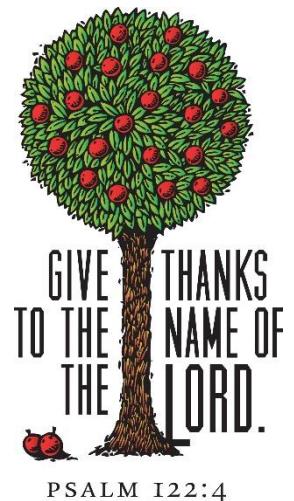

Pastor Bill & St. Paul's UCC Congregation,

Thank you so much for all of your prayers and blessings on Legacy Finn's baptismal day.

It was such a special day and we are forever thankful and blessed for the support and encouragement from each and everyone of you.

With love,
The Kopp Family (Aaron, Amy, Remmy & Legacy)

Bowing to God's Authority

Almost 250 years after the Revolution, independence is still important to Americans. Just as colonists objected to high taxes from the English crown, we object when others saddle us with overbearing burdens or demands.

As God's child, however, I recognize the importance of his authority and oversight. God works in me to make me more like him, and he works through me to do his bidding. The Holy Spirit intertwines with my thoughts and actions to bring about God's good will. Even when I'm selfish or don't want to conform, God's presence becomes part of my daily activities. "For it is God who works in you, both to will and to work for his good pleasure" (Philippians 2:13, ESV).

Because God knows what's good and right for me, I'll depend and lean on him, even when doubts arise. As I grow older, I see more clearly that hope and satisfaction result when I follow God's direction.

A Day Away in a Quiet Place

Maya Angelou said, "Each person deserves a day away in which no problems are confronted, no solutions searched for. Each of us needs to withdraw from the cares which will not withdraw from us." Similarly, when Jesus' disciples were consumed with ministry, he urged them, "Come with me by yourselves to a quiet place and get some rest" (Mark 6:31, NIV).

The late days of summer might be just the time to seek "a day away" not only from problems but even from ministry. While serving God and others can be energizing, we must balance work with rest. God set that example, resting after creating the world; Jesus set that example, calling his disciples away — not just alone, but with him — to be refreshed.

Spend a relaxing day at a lake. Go on a scrapbooking retreat or a leisurely hike with a friend. Find a monastery that welcomes guests, and experience 48 hours of prayer and silence there. Invite Jesus into that time and space. And remember another message he shared: "Come to me, all you who are weary and burdened, and I will give you rest" (Matthew 11:28, NIV).

A Prayer for the Fourth

Loving God, we thank you — the true Father of our country — for the blessings of this land and the gifts of cultures around the world. Prompt us to strive for justice for all, at home and abroad. Remind us, in the words of the hymn, that "this is our Father's world" and that your goodness prevails. Amid tragedies and conflicts, guard us against despair. Help us focus on the kindness evident daily: from generous neighbors to conscientious public servants (because most are). On Independence Day and every day, "O let [us] ne'er forget that though the wrong seems oft so strong, God is the Ruler yet." Amen.

—Sandy Hyland

What it means to be a Faith Community

"Therefore, since we are surrounded by so great a cloud of witnesses, let us also ... run with perseverance the race that is set before us" (Hebrews 12:1, NRSV). Inspired by this, Paul Hammer writes in The Word Among Us: "In the Bible, faith is never a matter simply for an isolated individual. It involves a community of persons that stretches back into the past, embraces people in the present and anticipates a fellowship in the future. Faith involves a 'cloud of witnesses' to God's continuing faithfulness.
