

HOW THEN Shall We Live?

Covenantal Life in the Midst of Coronavirus & White Supremacy

Annual Gathering Keynote Speakers Announced

We are thrilled to announce the lineup of keynote speakers for this year's annual gathering, held 100% virtually for 2021. This year, we will be joined by:

Aurelia Dávila Pratt, lead pastor as well as a founder of Peace of Christ Church, who is a writer, paradigm-shifter, and sacred spacemaker;

Robert P. Jones, CEO and founder of Public Religion Research Institute (PRRI) and the author of White Too Long: The Legacy of White Supremacy in American Christianity; and The End of White Christian America.

Naomi Washington-Leapheart, the Director for Faith-Based and Interfaith Affairs for the city of Philadelphia who manages the Mayor's Commission on Faith-Based and Interfaith Affairs.

All three of these thinkers are shaping the conversation about race, community, and the future of the church.

The Annual Gathering this year will be held April 23-24. We will be engaging the theme, "How Then Shall We Live?: Covenantal Life in the Midst of Coronavirus & White Supremacy." This event will be fully online, with some content available in advance. We are busy brainstorming ways to take creative advantage of the flexibility of an online conference, while staying true to the spirit of Alliance gatherings past.

Haven't registered for the event yet? Click here to register.

And don't miss out on our Annual Business Meeting being held on a separate weekend this year, April 10, from 3-5 EDT. If you'd like to register for this meeting, click here.

Join us April 23rd and 24th as we celebrate and affirm a new era in the life of the Alliance of Baptists.
