

“Being Mortal”

The Emmy-nominated PBS FRONTLINE documentary film based on Dr. Atul Gawande’s best-selling book.

Free screening and discussion

The film features patients with terminal illness and their relationships with their medical providers and the family members who care for them.

Experts will explore with the audience how to initiate important conversations with loved ones and medical providers about wishes and values at the end of life, and how to plan ahead.

SCREENING HOST:

Westchester End-of-Life Coalition - Live With Care project

Thursday, October 6, 6:30-8:30 PM, The Pillow Room, Sarah Lawrence College Library, Bronxville.
Community Partners: Sarah Lawrence College (End-of-Life Care Program and Masters Program in Health Advocacy); Gramatan Village; Jansen Hospice and Palliative Care.

Wednesday, October 19, 9:30-11:00 AM – Yonkers Public Library (Riverfront), 1 Larkin Plaza, Yonkers. Community Partners: Family Services of Westchester; Zelda Foster Studies Program in Palliative and End-of-Life Care, New York University Silver School of Social Work.

Wednesday, November 9, 3-5 PM, Phelps Hospital Auditorium, 701 North Broadway, Sleepy Hollow. Community Partner: Phelps Hospice. 2 CEUs offered for nurses.

Light refreshments will be served at all events

More information and registration (requested, not required): info@livewithcare.org

UNDERWRITERS:

Hospice Foundation of America and John and Wauna Harman Foundation

Live with Care