

The power to go beyond
starts here.

Why Verizon?

At Verizon, we don't wait for the future. We build it. From smart business services to cloud solutions, Internet of Things, and more, we're transforming how people, businesses and things connect with each other. We're always looking to drive positive change. We create business value by earning customer trust, minimizing our environmental impact, and maximizing customer growth, while creating social benefit through our products and services. Verizon is far and away the established leader in 4G LTE wireless networks. But "established leadership" isn't enough. So, we're surging ahead to build game-changing 5G networks more powerful than anything that has come before.
