

SPECIAL WORKSHOP SERIES

DECEMBER 2020

PROFESSIONAL INSTRUCTORS FROM ACROSS THE U.S.

SPOKEN WORD MATT RANDSELL

1st-12th Grade

Mondays
December 7 & 14
6:45--7:45pm CST

Matt's Spoken Word Workshop encourages students to discover topics they're passionate about, creatively and artistically. Matt's enthusiasm and positivity guides and teaches kids to verbally express their cares while empowering them as spoken word artists. Learn to articulate a purpose, design a piece of spoken word poetry and perform proudly

DISNEY DANCE TAYLOR O'TOOLE

1st-12th Grade

Thursdays
December 10 & 17
5:30-6:30pm CST

Learn the fundamentals to succeed in any dance audition. With her experience as a performer in musicals including "Frozen" on Disney Cruise Lines, Taylor will teach you fun, Disney-inspired combos and give you the tools and tricks to rock your dance audition!

MASTER YOUR VOCAL JAY ARMSTRONG JOHNSON

1st-12th Grade

Wednesdays
December 9 & 16
5:30-6:30pm CST

Come work with this Broadway Triple-Threat in this vocal masterclass that will take your vocal audition piece to the next level. You'll work on characterization of your piece while understanding what professionals are looking and listening for in an audition. Jay's insight and guidance are a great encouragement!

SONGWRITING PAM ADAIR

1st-12th Grade

Thursdays
December 10 & 17
5:30-6:30pm CST

Have you caught yourself humming, creating a melody, or jotting down words on a napkin for that potential song? This class is for you! Learn to express your thoughts into a musical idea and come away knowing how musical form and structure translate into the world of songwriting.

SPECIAL WORKSHOP SERIES

DECEMBER 2020

PROFESSIONAL INSTRUCTORS FROM ACROSS THE U.S.

PUPPETRY KIM OWEN

1st-6th Grade

Thursdays

December 10 & 17
5:30-6:30pm CST

Create and design your own puppets and then watch them come to life while you act out your original stories and well-loved stories. This engaging class will give your actors and puppets move physical and vocal confidence. Supply materials for puppets will be provided in specially designed Kids Who Care packets.

SOUND DESIGN DAVID LANZA

6th-12th Grade

Tuesdays

December 8 & 15
5:30-6:30pm CST

This Workshop is an overview of selected foundational sound design and audio engineering topics. Learn important terminology, get an introduction to typical sound processes for live theater, and have the opportunity to create and explore aspects of your own sound design project

BUDGETING FUN KATHRYN ALBRIGHT

9th-12th Grade

Wednesdays

December 9 & 16
5:30-6:30pm CST

Understanding and creating budgets for business and personal use is key to your future success! Learn basic budget creation and how a budget can make your dreams come true!

COLLEGE AUDITIONS JULE NELSON-DUAC

11th-12th Grade

Tuesdays

December 8 & 15
5:30-6:30pm CST

This Workshop prepares you for your upcoming college auditions. Week One will focus on Acting Auditions with Week Two on Vocal. You'll come away with confidence to send your audition videos to colleges as you prepare for the next step in your musical journey.

SPECIAL WORKSHOP SERIES

JANUARY 2021

PROFESSIONAL INSTRUCTORS FROM ACROSS THE U.S.

SONGWRITING ELIZABETH WILLS

1st-12th Grade

Monday,
January 25
5:30--7:30pm CST

Fort Worth, Texas-based singer-songwriter, Elizabeth Wills has a voice that the Dallas Morning News compared to singer/songwriter greats Carly Simon and Sarah McLachlan. Her songs - real and riveting - keep listeners engaged start to finish. Come learn the art of songwriting and discover YOUR voice as a writer.

ACTING FOR THE CAMERA MIKAYLA GIBSON

1st-12th Grade

Tuesdays
January 19 & 26
5:30-6:30pm CST

Even in Hollywood, actors are hired by submitting self-tapes and through online meetings with casting directors. In Acting for the Camera, you will learn how to navigate this new way of auditioning as well as acting techniques and personal strategies necessary to secure work and perform in film and television.

MASTER YOUR DANCE AUDITION BRITTANY JENKINS

1st-12th Grade

Wednesdays
January 20 & 27
6:30-7:30pm CST

Following a powerful cardio warm-up the class will dive into a contemporary musical combination. While fun and welcoming, the class is designed to push your limits to retain choreography in a limited time. Come alert and ready to be challenged, but overall, come ready to dance and have fun!!!

VOICE & DICTION FOR ADULTS DEBORAH JUNG

Adults of All Ages

Thursdays
January 21 & 28
5:30-6:30pm CST

"Through your voice you control yourself!" Arthur Lessac's world re-known techniques will give you a voice that not only can be heard across the room, but is pure music to the ear. Never let anyone say to you again, "Speak Up!" or "I can't understand you." This class is energy packed and physically fun!

SPECIAL WORKSHOP SERIES

JANUARY 2021

PROFESSIONAL INSTRUCTORS FROM ACROSS THE U.S.

PUPPETRY KIM OWEN

1st-6th
Grade

Thursdays
January 21 & 28
5:30-6:30pm CST

Create and design your own puppets and then watch them come to life while you act out your original stories and well-loved stories. This engaging class will give your actors and puppets move physical and vocal confidence. Supply materials for puppets will be provided in specially designed Kids Who Care packets.

SOUND DESIGN DAVID LANZA

6th-12th
Grade

Tuesdays
January 19 & 26
5:30-6:30pm CST

This Workshop is an overview of selected foundational sound design and audio engineering topics. Learn important terminology, get an introduction to typical sound processes for live theater, and have the opportunity to create and explore aspects of your own sound design project

POP VOCAL & BELTING AMANDA WILLIAMS-WARE

8th-12th
Grade

Thursdays
January 21 & 28
5:30-6:30pm CST

Join local musical theatre performing artist, songwriter, and Kids Who Care Alumna in a class that will teach you performance and healthy singing techniques to project your Pop Music song. Bring a song for us to work on with you!

RESUMES & INTERVIEWS KATHRYN ALBRIGHT

9th-12th
Grade

Wednesdays
January 20 & 27
5:30-6:30pm CST

Looking for a job? Applying for a University? Translate your life experience into a resume that shines and an interview that makes them say "yes"!