

GAP Certification Training

Learn how GAP certification can benefit your specialty crop production by strengthening food safety practices and expanding your market. GAP stands for Good Agricultural Practices, and passing the GAP audit means producers are reducing the risk of foodborne illness originating from a farm. GAP certification is often required by restaurants, retailers, school systems, and food aggregation distributors.

- Presented by Central State and OSU Extension
- Pizza and drinks provided!
- Free program, but registration required

Register
Here!

Wednesday, May 21

AT 6:00 PM

HCCD Training Center

2710 E. KEMPER RD.
CINCINNATI, 45241