

Dean's Lecture Series

"World Class: One Mother's Journey Halfway Around the Globe in Search of the Best Education for her Children"

PRESENTED BY:

Teru Clavel

Author and Education Expert

Author and Drexel University School of Education alumna Teru Clavel will share her insight in comparative international education during a special Dean's Lecture Series event. Her presentation is based on her new book, World Class: One Mother's Journey Halfway Around the Globe in Search of the Best Education for her Children. The book explores reasons why Asian students are outpacing their American counterparts in their education outcomes and key takeaways on how to bring the best of Asia's education and parenting philosophies to American schools and homes.

A book signing with Teru will immediately follow the presentation. Copies of Teru's book will be available for purchase.

DATE

THURSDAY,
OCTOBER 17, 2019
2:00–3:30 PM

LOCATION

THE STUDY
20 S. 33RD STREET
PHILADELPHIA, PA 19104

ABOUT Teru Clavel

Teru Clavel is an education expert, columnist, and sought-after public speaker. Since 2010, she's run her own education consulting practice, advising globally-minded families on a range of issues that include multiple language acquisition, school choice, and how to enroll their children in United States universities. Teru has written columns on education for both The Japan Times and The Financial Times, and she's made appearances on CBS This Morning, CNBC's Squawk Box, and Channel NewsAsia.

Join the talk online at <https://zoom.us/j/3483637058>.

PLEASE REGISTER FOR THIS FREE EVENT:

drexel.qualtrics.com/jfe/form/SV\_3vNkOyP6W3xczPv