

There is still time for your school to participate in Reading Makes Cents!

Reading Makes Cents is a financial literacy reading program, available to K-5 students and librarians across the state of Virginia. Reach out to your school's principal or librarian to encourage participation.

For participating in Reading Makes Cents, your library will receive the following books for FREE:

PRIZES:

- Fourteen student participants (two from each of the seven VaASL regions) will be randomly selected to win $529 Invest529 higher education savings accounts from Virginia529.
- The seven schools (one from each VaASL region) with the highest student participation on a percentage basis will receive $500 worth of financial literacy books for their school library.

REGISTER HERE

HURRY - Registrations for librarians must be submitted by April 15, 2022!